

NIGHT EDITION VETERAN BRICKLAYER

Laid Brick in the First Huntington Hall

His Request to Place a Few Bricks in New Y. M. C. A. Building Was Granted — Work on the Building is Progressing Very Favorably

"I laid some of the bricks in the first Huntington hall that was built in Lowell and I would like to lay a few bricks on this new building on the old site," said Richard T. Sylvester to one of the men at work on the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Mr. Sylvester was introduced to Inspector Henry M. Southworth and repeated his request. "I have brought along the old trowel that I used on the first Huntington hall and I'll use it to lay a few bricks here if you have no objection," he said. "But it's about time that I was taking things easy. I laid bricks on the gate house yesterday," he continued, pointing to the little brick gate house of the Locks & Canals, in Merrimack and Dalton streets, and that's one of the best pieces of brick work in this country. "I think that was built in 1848 and it's as good today as the day it was built."

The old man looked at the little gate house with admiring eyes and he hoped that the new Y. M. C. A. building would stand the test of years as well as the gate house has stood it. Mr. Sylvester is 83 years old and lives at the corner of Westford and Royal streets.

The New Y. M. C. A.

Work on the new Y. M. C. A. building is progressing very favorably. The putting in of the foundation was a mammoth job but the real work is so thoroughly appreciated by the passer-by. The laying of the concrete floor slabs and the waterproofing of the boiler room will complete, in a general way, the foundation. Then the brick work will be on with a rush and the outlines of the big building will be made to show themselves. It will be the first building of tapestry brick in Lowell, and the bricks are said to have a very pretty effect. They are known as the bricks of many shades and, laid at random, they display almost all the colors of the rainbow. The brick work has been started on the gymnasium which is the building and rapid strides will be made as soon as the other fellows clear the way.

HIS BACK INJURED

Young Man Was Blown From a Ladder

Henri Brassard, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Brassard of 125 Allen street, narrowly escaped being seriously injured this morning by falling off a ladder from a height of about 46 feet. As it was the young man sustained a slight injury to his back, but that did not stop him from working.

At 11 o'clock this morning Brassard and Michel Huet were painting the O'Hanlon residence in Colonial avenue. Brassard was near the roof standing on a ladder when a brisk wind blew him off. He landed on his back in the yard and remained there for a few seconds. His partner who was busy at the other end of the building, rushed to Brassard's assistance when he saw him fall, but the latter needed no aid for he got right up on his feet again and went back to work. He complained later of pains in his back, and went to his home, where he was attended by a physician. He returned to his work in the afternoon, feeling none the worse for the dangerous experience he went through in the forenoon.

GENERAL NAVARRO

Said to Have Deserted the City of Juarez

He Was Expecting Reinforcements—Fierce Fighting Lasted for Four Hours—The Rebels Threw Dynamite Bombs—Both Sides Used Machine Guns

General Navarro, the federal commander, continued his desperate resistance in Juarez this morning to the onslaughts of the rebels under Francisco Alarido, Jr.

After fierce fighting that lasted over four hours it was reported that Navarro had deserted the city.

The engagement began again in earnest at 8.25 o'clock. Juarez is being swept from the fires of last night. The federalists made desperate stands from behind their barricades. The rebels pushed the fighting. The federalists found refuge in a church and at the custom house but the latest reports declare that they were driven from both these buildings by their enemies.

The rebels are throwing dynamite bombs and both sides are using machine guns.

Navarro expected reinforcements to the number of 300 men at one o'clock.

Wounded men are being brought into El Paso and refugees are pouring across the bridge that separates Juarez from the American city. Bullets are still coming across the river into El Paso, but so far as known this morning no more Americans have been killed or wounded.

El Juarez, the Mexican town in lower California, captured by the rebels yesterday, is still in their possession. There has been no further fighting at that point.

The federal forces that were in Agua Prieta evacuated that town early today.

It is reported that federal forces were drawn into a trap yesterday near Saltillo and lost 56 men killed in the subsequent fighting with the rebels.

BURNED TO GROUND

Buildings on Page's Farm in Tyngsboro Destroyed by Fire

Crew of Volunteer Firemen Saved Several Buildings — Forest Fires Started Again This Morning—The Damage Estimated at Between $1500 and $2000

The old Plafstorf farm, located at the approach to the "Dip" at Williams farm in Tyngsboro, was practically destroyed by fire this morning. The neighbors were unable to cope with the flames and sent in seven telephone alarms to the local fire department, inasmuch as the committee on fire department has raised objection to the apparatus leaving the city for fires it was not until the information had been received that the flames were spreading towards this city. Chief Norton dispatched the Westford street company to the scene.

The members of the Tyngsboro fire department were summoned to a brisk forest fire yesterday afternoon and after battling with the flames for several hours thought that they had extinguished the fire, but the blaze broke out afresh this morning and before the volunteer fire fighters could arrive on the scene the flames were fed by a strong wind spread to the Plafstorf property and ignited the one and one-half story house, which was over 100 years old, as well as the celebrated "Studio House" of two and one-half stories, a corn crib and several outbuildings.

The first telephone alarm was sent in to the central fire station at 8.35 o'clock this morning and nine minutes later another alarm was sent in. The third alarm was sounded at 9.14 o'clock and then in quick succession came alarms at 9.24, 9.25 and 9.25 and 9.46.

The two larger buildings were ablaze when the chemical arrived on the scene and the local fire fighters were instructed in keeping the flames from spreading to the adjoining property.

While the buildings destroyed are owned by Mr. D. L. Page of this city, they are not located on what is known as the Page farm.

o'clock and then in quick succession came alarms at 9.24, 9.25 and 9.25 and 9.46.

SALOON ROBBED

Place in Merrimack Square Was Entered by Thieves

The liquor saloon of Andrew L. Fendegast at 13 Merrimack street was broken into some time early this morning and the thief or thieves stole between $11 and $12 from the two cash registers.

An entrance was gained by removing a heavy wire screen in the rear of the store and although as a general rule there are several officers in the vicinity of the saloon nothing was known of the break until the matter was reported to the police by the clerk who opened up early this morning.

The police are of the opinion that the person who made the break was well acquainted with the premises and knew that money was left in the registers at night in order that the clerks might use it to make change in the morning.

Re-elected State Auditor of the Knights of Columbus

Archbishop O'Connell Addressed the Annual Convention—Matters at Issue Were Settled—State Deputy William J. O'Brien Was Re-elected

BOSTON, May 10.—Several important matters came up for consideration at the 18th annual convention of the state council, Knights of Columbus, yesterday, probably the most important being a resolution favoring the affiliation of the order with the federation of Catholic societies. The resolution adopted was: "That it is the sense of the Massachusetts state council to favor Catholic federation and to instruct its delegates to the national convention of the order in effect every effort to have action taken permitting local councils to affiliate with the federation of Catholic societies. The insurance program is always one that causes more or less discussion in conventions, particularly regarding the rates affecting members after reaching the age of 60. Yesterday was no exception to this rule and a resolution looking toward reducing the burden of the older members provoked the most spirited debate of the day. The position taken by the national council was defended by National Ad-

NEW STATE HIGHWAY

To Be Viewed by Legislative Committee Tomorrow

The committee on roads and bridges of which Senator Hubbard is chairman, will investigate the new state highway in process of construction between Lowell and Lawrence. They will go to Lawrence this evening and in the morning will go over the road and come to Lowell. If they have time they will go to Tyngsboro and investigate the state highway work in connection and also look at the Tyngsboro bridge, the only bridge in Middlesex county that is partly supported by the county. Senator Hubbard having introduced a bill providing that the county share the expense of maintenance of the bridges across the Merrimack in Lowell, as is done in other counties.

Disagree on Charter. Within a week the committee on cities has held three executive meetings for the discussion of the proposed new city charter for Lowell at which the committee has each time disagreed as to the form of its report. The State's information on the matter who speaks authoritatively is of the opinion that a report of some kind will be made within a few days.

FINDS NO FRAUD

Court Dismissed Bill Brought Against Dracut Woman

Finding no evidence of fraud to induce the plaintiff to deed his property Judge Richardson, in the equity session of superior court yesterday, dismissed the bill brought by Daniel Goodhue, aged 84, a farmer in Reading, against Mrs. Little B. Hunting of Dracut, seeking a reconveyance of his farm worth $1600 and personally worth between $300 and $400 to her in consideration of taking care of him for life, providing him with two rooms in her house.

He said she had him removed to the loft in the barn and his niece, Mrs. Augusta E. Cook of Reading, took him to her home.

Mrs. Hunting claimed the plaintiff understood the conditions of the transaction and she gave him a bond for $500, the conditions of which she alleged she had complied with. She said he went to the loft in the barn which he appeared to like better. The defendant claimed she never saw the bond referred to and did not know it required her to furnish him with two rooms in her house.

The judge dismissed the bill without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to sue for damages for alleged breach of the bond for $500.

Funeral of Officer McKay This Morning

The funeral of the late Police Officer John H. McKay, one of the most popular and one of the most efficient members of the Lowell Police department, took place this morning from his home, 150 Bartlett street and was largely attended by surviving relatives and friends. While the police department made no formal appearance there were many representatives of the department at the service which was held in the Immaculate Conception church, including Police Commissioners Mullane and Boulger; Supt. Welch; Lieut. Freeman; Lieut. Martin; Constables and Sergeants Maguire, besides many patrolmen and well known citizens.

At the church solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Fr. Fox, O. M. L., assisted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. L., deacon and Rev. Fr. McQuade, O. M. L., sub-deacon. The choir under the direction of Mr. Charles F. Smith sang Schmitt's requiem and the solos of the mass were given by Miss Margaret Knowles, Edward Shea and William Gookin. At the offertory Leybach's "Pie Jesu" was sung by Mr. John Dalton. After the elevation, "O Mari-tim Passions" was sung by Mrs. Terence Cox and at the conclusion of mass "The Profundus" was rendered by Mr. James E. Donnelly. The solos in the Gloria at the final benediction were sung by Mrs. Hugh Walker, who presided at the organ. As the remains were borne from the church, Mrs. Walker rendered softly on the organ the beautiful funeral hymn, "Face to Face." Upon leaving the church the funeral cortege headed by an open carriage carrying the wealth of floral

TROLLEY FREIGHT BILL

Was Killed in the State Senate Yesterday

BOSTON, May 10.—A warm contest with the Worcester street railway situation the storm center, developed in the state senate yesterday afternoon on the bill which places the granting of franchises to street railways for the carrying of freight and express matter directly in the hands of the local authorities of each city and town. The bill also limited the franchise to 20 years. This bill had been substituted in the house for the adverse report of the committee on street railways.

Yesterday Senator Bennett of Essex, chairman of street railways, strongly opposed the bill as entirely against the public interest, claiming that it brought back a type of franchise which the state had abandoned, and left the street railways as well as the surrounding communities at the mercy in certain instances, of a single local board.

After a rather heated discussion the bill was declared to a third reading, 14 to 13. Senator Bennett immediately arose and said that while he would not ask for a roll-call he wanted to give notice that today he would offer a substitute bill striking out the limitation of franchise but leaving the control to the local boards.

Senator Hunt of Worcester, apparently fearing trouble, then declared in his favor, and called for the yeas and nays. The roll was called and the bill was rejected, 14 to 13, with four yeas, on the following division: For the bill—Barnes, Denny, Halley, Hoar, Hunt, Mallon, Nash, Nason, Quigley, Ross, Schoonmaker, Stearns, Tinkham, White—14. Against the bill—Adams, Bennett, Blanchard, Curley, Doyle, Evans, Grainger, Hibbard, Keith, Lonsaney, Mulligan, Murray, Newhall, Powers, Thimbley, Tolman—13.

Patented—For the bill, Gates, Brown, Mailey, Mack, against—Chace, Pearson, Greenwood, Turner.

Restraint Bill Reported
Without division or debate the senate accepted the adverse report on the order of Senator Hoar of Middlesex for an investigation by the railroad committee relative to the amount and kinds of rolling stock installed by the Massachusetts railroads during the past ten years.

The committee on public charitable institutions, with five dissenters, reported Dr. L. Vernon Briggs' bill which prohibits the use of restraint by mills, lock bracelets, anklets, etc., in any of the institutions of the state after July 1st, 1911. The dissenters are Senator Turner and Representatives Cliff, Wood, Wheeler and Prece.

The ways and means committee reported against the resolve to appropriate $10,000 for dredging Charles river above Galen street in Watertown and also asked to be discharged from further consideration of the bill to authorize cities and towns to establish homesteads. This bill now goes to the committee on public health.

The senate concurred with the house in curing a slight defect in the 54-hour bill and the measure was returned to the house for enactment.

The report on the petition for a close season for deer and the bills relative to the night messenger service, the transmission of electricity, to confirm localities of electric lines, and concerning the price and quality of gas and electricity, were all put over till tomorrow.

Peaceful Persuasion Bill
On a rising vote, without debate, the senate rejected the "peaceful persuasion" bill, 13 to 13, on a roll call the bill was ordered to a third reading, 13 to 12. The roll call was:

Yes—Adams, Curley, Doyle, Grainger, Halley, Hibbard, Hoar, Hunt, Lonsaney, Mack, Murray, Nason, Newhall, Powers, Quigley, Ross, Thimbley, Tinkham—13. No—Barnes, Bennett, Blanchard, Brown, Denny, Evans, Gates, Greenwood, Keith, Mulligan, Nash, Tolman—12.

Patented—In favor, Hutton, Mallory, Schoonmaker. On motion of Senator Mallory the 12th joint rule was suspended to admit his new bill to provide that civil action may be brought to recover for conscious suffering in cases of death under a separate count and money so recovered shall be turned into the account of the executor or administrator of the deceased.

On motion of Senator Bennett of Saugus the senate reconsidered its vote of Monday passing to be engrossed the bill for a third special justice of the Lynn police court.

All other matters were advanced.

On a voice vote in which there was no advocacy heard the house rejected the so-called "bob vote" bill, which permitted the sale of calves weighing not less than 40 pounds and striking out of the present law the requirement that the calves must be at least four weeks old. This action was taken after the house had rejected an amendment offered by Representative Greenwood of Everett to adopt the national law making an age of three weeks the only requirement.

The house stood by the state board of conciliation and arbitration when it rejected, as recommended by the ways and means committee, the resolve calling for the appointment of a special commission to look into the report on the work of the present state board of Representative Parks of Fall River opposed and Representative White of Brookline favored rejection.

Debate on Firemen's Pensions
At the afternoon session the Boston firemen's pension bill was, again debated at length. Representative Montague of Boston offered four amendments, the first providing that the bill shall be permissive instead of mandatory; the second that incapacity shall be permanent to permit retirement; the third that no fireman shall be retired until he shall have reached the age of 55 years; and the fourth that any incapacity, in order to permit retirement, shall have been caused or induced in the performance of duty.

Representative Montague argued that without these amendments a member of the department could go to Maine on a vacation trip, contract typhoid fever there and, returning, make claim that he was incapacitated for duty, and under the terms of the act the city physician would be obliged to certify that he was so incapacitated and the fire commissioner would be forced to permit his retirement, although two weeks later the man might be again in first class physical condition.

Representative Lonsaney of Boston offered an amendment providing that all retirements shall be subject to the approval of the mayor, but he opposed all of the Montague amendments. His amendment was adopted. He insisted that the bill contained no necessary safeguards without the amendments.

Representative Sullivan of Boston also opposed the Montague amendments and favored the bill. The house then rejected the Montague amendments, adopted the Lonsaney amendment and passed the bill to the governor.

On the ground that the measure, if enacted, would put municipal light plants out of business, Representative Nickerson of Hull and Bellamy of Taunton opposed the bill that electric light companies shall charge uniform rates for all classes of service.

Representative Cogswell of Lynn, who had the bill substituted last week for an adverse report, insisted that the measure would insure a square deal for the small consumer and ought to be passed. Representative McInerney of Boston spoke for the bill. By a vote of 30 to 32 the bill was finally rejected at third reading and was rejected.

The bill making an appropriation of $100,000 to be expended on the state highways in times of industrial distress was rejected, 45 to 30.

The bill authorizing cities and towns to provide meals for school children was rejected, 44 to 28.

On a voice vote the house defeated a motion of Mr. Hutton of Middlesex to substitute for an adverse report a bill prohibiting railroad corporations charging more than 5 cents extra on cash fares.

PLANS FILED
FOR NEW STADIUM AT POLO GROUNDS

NEW YORK, May 10.—Plans were filed yesterday for the new concrete and steel stadium which will replace the stands recently destroyed by fire at the National league park, better known as the Polo grounds. The exact seating capacity is not given, but it is estimated at 50,000. The new stand will be a double deck affair, semi-circular in shape, 324 feet around the inner circle and 324 feet along the outer edge. The roof will be asbestos and the cost is placed at $100,000. Work will begin at once.

HEAVY DAMAGE DONE TO TIMBER BY FOREST FIRES

WINNIPEG, Man., May 10.—The damage done to timber in the Dauphin Manitoba district by forest fires yesterday is unprecedented. The range country is covered by fire fully 200 miles in extent. The territory covered includes Riding, Duck and Porcupine mountains and the timber burned will total millions of feet.

Fire is in the timber reserves at all points; and, notwithstanding the fact that large gangs of men are out fighting flames, their efforts are futile in the face of heavy winds and dry goods.

"WORLD IN BOSTON"
The fifth day of the fifth month, May 5th, is a great day for boys in Japan and is called the feast of flags. Every one in Japan knows when this day arrives because above every house where boys are living will be seen the figure of a huge fish, made of brightly colored paper.

In commemoration of this day one of these large paper fishes, with some smaller ones, will be hoisted from a flag pole outside "The World in Boston." The body of the fish is hollow and when the wind blows into it, it wriggles its fins and just like a fish swimming strongly. The Japanese chose the carp because they say it has the power of ascending streams swiftly against the current and of leaping over waterfalls. It is thus supposed to typify a boy or young man breasting the stream of life and thrusting his way through difficulties to success.

To commemorate this day some special exercises will take place in the Japanese sections of the exposition, in the Educational section, in the gallery, from 2 to 6 o'clock, boys will be found occupied with characteristic games and drill. The Jiu Jitsu and Gekken will be taught by Japanese men.

CROWSON SENTENCED
SPRINGFIELD, May 10.—One year in the house of correction was the sentence pronounced upon W. W. Crowson, former treasurer of the Western Savings bank in the superior court yesterday after he had pleaded guilty to five counts of making false returns to the bank commissioner.

According to the statements made by bank officials Crowson admitted taking money from the institution for the purpose of supporting his aged parents. The depositors lost nothing.

COL. HIGGINSON DEAD

Author and Historian Died of Old Age

CAMBRIDGE, May 10.—Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, historian and author, minister and soldier, one of the last of the group of famous scholars and abolitionists of half a century ago, died at his home here last night, aged 87 years.

Col. Higginson had been ill but about 10 days. A general breaking up of his health due to old age became apparent but was not considered serious until yesterday when Mr. Higginson became unconscious and no hope was held out for his recovery.

He is survived by a widow and one daughter, Mrs. J. D. Barney of Boston, who were with him at the end.

"To write good English and to have something to say," was the youthful ambition of the Cambridge man whose pen and tongue were stilled forever last night. Two years ago Col. Higginson said he felt that he had attained his one great ambition in life.

He said he realized that it was of great importance that the literary man should have some other interest which would take him away from his studies and bring him face to face with other men; that it was desirable that he should be a reformer and have some natural gift or taste for public speaking.

"In this respect," said Col. Higginson, "my life has been a fortunate one, and has connected me closely with several important reforms, especially those relating to the emancipation and education and enfranchisement of women. So far my ambition, if such it was, has been very highly gratified."

Col. Higginson was almost the last leaf on that worthy New England tree of knowledge from which had fluttered down in the autumn of their days such noted ones as Longfellow, Whitier, Holmes, Emerson and Lowell. There was another group, somewhat distinct, to which Higginson had also belonged and of which he, too, is a most the last to go—the anti-slavery agitators or abolitionists of the days before the war—Garrison, Wendell Phillips, Senator Hoar and, more recently, Wendell Phillips, Edward Everett Hale and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe.

In the death of Col. Higginson America loses one of her most eminent historians, essayists and reformers. Col. Higginson had a distinguished ancestry. His paternal grandfather was a successful shipmaster before the revolution and later a delegate to the continental congress. His mother was the daughter of Captain Thomas Storrow, a British officer. Col. Higginson was born in this city in 1823. He was educated in Cambridge at the preparatory school of William Wells, where James Russell Lowell and William Storey were among his schoolmates.

Col. Higginson was a member of the Harvard class of 1841, before the age of 18, the youngest in his class, and the second in rank. He spent two years at the Harvard divinity school, graduating in 1847, and was shortly afterward ordained as pastor of the first Baptist church, in the city of Newburyport. He was obliged to leave this church on account of his pronounced anti-slavery views.

He served in the Civil war as captain of the 51st Massachusetts volunteer militia and later as colonel of the First South Carolina volunteers, a Union organization afterwards named the 33rd United States colored troops. He was vice president of the Liberal Congress of Religion and a member of the Academy of Arts and Sciences, Royal Society of Canada and other organizations. He held the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, conferred by Harvard and Western Reserve universities. He was the author of a history of the United States, an English history for Americans and a great variety of other publications.

FRANK GOTCH
AGREES TO MEET THE "RUSSIAN LION" AGAIN

CHICAGO, May 10.—Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler, last night announced he would sign articles of day for a championship match with George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," to be decided in the Chicago arena of Newburyport. He was obliged to leave this church on account of his pronounced anti-slavery views.

He served in the Civil war as captain of the 51st Massachusetts volunteer militia and later as colonel of the First South Carolina volunteers, a Union organization afterwards named the 33rd United States colored troops. He was vice president of the Liberal Congress of Religion and a member of the Academy of Arts and Sciences, Royal Society of Canada and other organizations. He held the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, conferred by Harvard and Western Reserve universities. He was the author of a history of the United States, an English history for Americans and a great variety of other publications.

Terms for the contest were agreed on last night, it is said.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write our Association and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

TIRED WOMEN

Some women are never tired. They keep busy all day, sleep soundly, eat heartily and are always cheerful. Some are always tired—this condition largely depends upon the state of the stomach, liver and bowels.

TAKE BEECHAM'S PILLS

When you feel out of sorts nothing else will give you such a feeling of power and happiness as the cleansing, purifying tonic effects of this wonderful family medicine.

Your personal charm, both mental and physical, is largely dependent upon the organs of digestion. Beecham's Pills have been used by women for generations to produce health, beauty and happiness and

THE FREE LIST BILL

The free list bill passed by the national house will probably be killed by the senate. We doubt whether President Taft would favor it as he stands only for the reciprocity measure which he himself has fathered. In conceding so much the standpat republicans feel that he has gone too far.

TO REDISTRRICT THE STATE

The present legislature will soon have to pass a measure for the redistricting of the state into sixteen congressional districts. The republicans of this state are experts at the matter of perfecting a gerrymander. They have done some elegant jobs in that line, a fact to which the residents of Lowell can bear witness. The republican method is so to distribute the democratic vote that so far as possible it shall simply constitute a number of respectable minorities and the smaller, the more respectable from the republican standpoint. In some cases of course, the redistrictors have to single out a democratic stronghold, and admit the impossibility of a gerrymander so far as that is concerned except to see that if there are any republican fringes to the district, these shall be cut off and thrown into some republican district. Sometimes they miscalculate upon future growth and a democratic minority that was expected to remain harmless has the audacity to grow into a majority. That is looked upon as a political misfortune that only a mind reader could foresee.

The democrats are now stronger in the Massachusetts legislature than at the time of the last apportionment ten years ago, and there is in office a democratic governor so that all these democratic forces combined should prevent any measure very unfair to the democrats from being enacted.

POLICE PROTECTION FOR SOUTH COMMON

If only half of what Mr. Michael Corbett has charged in his communication relative to conditions on the South common were true, there would still be good reason why the park board should look into the matter with a view to suppressing everything approaching rowdiness. It is a well known fact that juvenile ball tennis resort to the South common and start hitting or playing wherever they find an opening and they seem to consider that it is the duty of everybody else to get out of their way. The juveniles and their seniors should be impressed with the fact that ball playing must be confined to that portion of the common set apart for the game. Lack of proper regulation may to a great extent destroy the usefulness of the common to the general public. Care should be taken to guard against any such abuse. We are inclined to believe that there are good grounds for most of Mr. Corbett's complaints and that the lack of police protection furnishes the explanation. People who, like Mr. Corbett, reside near the common see and hear a good deal that even the park board cannot hear. The park board has not the money to pay an officer for the South common. The police department also objects on the ground of expense, so that it would seem to be up to the city council to authorize the expense of an officer to patrol this common. If an officer were assigned to the North and South commons, he could cover both acceptably by riding from one to the other on the Fletcher street car. Our commons must not be abandoned to the turbulent element while women with sick babies, people in feeble health and invalids of various kinds seek the common as the most convenient place to keep cool and to get the benefit of the fresh air. There is no use in expending money for parks, if as Mr. Corbett says, they are abandoned to ball teams and rowdies who drive off the people who most need the benefits of a public breathing place.

SHOULD THERE BE ANY FREE PUBLIC BATHS?

Should a city like Boston maintain a system of free public baths or should every bath be admitted to the baths be obliged to pay a small admission fee? That is a question that is exciting much controversy in the city of Boston at the present time.

The L street free public baths in South Boston have long been a great attraction to thousands during the hot weather. There the bathers in each section, one for boys and one for men, were allowed to go into the water and lie around on the sand in the nude, but now it is proposed to change all this. The trustees of the bath house have declared in favor of an admission fee of five cents and six cents for bathing trunks, towel and soap for each person, making altogether a charge of eleven cents for a bath of unlimited time.

The Boston city council is opposed to the change, but the spirit of economy is abroad in Boston and a demand is made for a source of revenue by which the institution can be made self-supporting. It is a fact that thousands of non-residents use these baths every hot day, but there is no discrimination, no questions asked as to name, age, residence or anything else. It is not unreasonable that there should be a small charge to meet the heavy expenses of providing attendants, lockers for clothing and for keeping the buildings and beach in proper sanitary condition. Very few cities maintain free public baths, and yet the benefit of such a system to any community might far exceed the running expenses. Despite the smallness of the charge proposed for a dip at the L street baths, it would operate to keep away probably half the people who have patronized the baths in the past. It becomes, therefore, a question of public policy as to whether it would not be better in the interests of public health to have the baths free as usual so that the people who are too poor to pay any admission fee may still enjoy the luxury of a sea bath during the very hot weather. Vast amounts are paid for public sanitation, for fighting tuberculosis and the promotion of the public health and yet these efforts may not bring such substantial results as would the money expended for public baths.

SEEN AND HEARD

When it rains on washing day, the good housekeeper doesn't sit down and mourn. She finds something that needs to be done around the house.

The girl with large feet who she wears white shoes ought to wear long skirts.

The deepest of the trunk mysteries is how a woman can manage to get so much into one that the expressman has to call in the other man on the wagon to help him lift it.

If only the fool who rocks the boat were drowned, the practice ought to be discouraged.

Of course the man who runs the big steam laundry has all his own washing done by hand at home.

Everybody notices particularly to see just what tone the bride uses when she says: "I do."

Some men have such a wise look that they might have a reputation for wisdom if they only wouldn't write or talk.

If you sigh and mentally say: "Thank Heaven!" when you hear somebody remark "There's no place like home!" everybody ought to be sorry for you.

As the train left a certain station the following sign was displayed in the buffet car:

"No intoxicating liquors will be served while the train is passing through North Dakota."

They had been rolling through that interminable state a long time when the W. C. T. U. delegate from the east came into the car for her dinner. Casting her eye out of the window upon a somewhat changed landscape, she remarked to the waiter:

"Are we still in North Dakota?"

"No, ma'am," answered George alertly with a hospitable grin, "what'll you drink, ma'am?"

An intense republican, Col. David P. Dyer was sent to congress during the reconstruction period, although his democratic opponent received a majority of the votes cast. When he was a candidate for re-election, he was making a speech to an audience comprising some of his old democratic friends, and as usual he was denouncing the democrats as liars and thieves when an inebriated democratic veteran exclaimed:

"Shut up! You were never elected to congress in the first place!"

Dyer looked at him and replied: "Well, my old friend, any blamed fool can serve in congress who is elected, but it takes an immense smart one to serve there, who was never elected!"

Boston Traveler.

There are a great number of very old sovereigns among the rulers of Europe, says the French Gentlewoman. The doyen is the duke of Saxe-Meiningen, who completed his 84th year on April 2. Next comes Kaiser Franz Joseph of Austria, King of Hungary, who was 83 on August 18.

Then follow Prince Heinrich of Reuss J. L., who is 78; the Pope, Pius X, who completed his 75th year on June 2; the King of Roumania, who is 71; Prince Johann of Lichtenstein.

NEW MEDICAL COMPOUND

A chemist who was convinced that the old method of taking internal medicines for skin troubles was wrong, discovered that an extract from a particular tree was good for the skin. This important vegetable extract, by a method of special treatment with healing ingredients, forms the product known as Cadum. Since its introduction Cadum has cured many cases of eczema and other unsightly, irritating and distressing skin diseases after other remedies had failed. Cadum stops the terrible itching of eczema at once, and begins healing the first time it is applied. It is also good for pimples, blotches, hives, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, ringworm, rash, sores, chafings, eruptions, itching piles, scurvy, scabs, etc. Many of the results obtained by the use of Cadum may be truly called wonderful. FATIGUE

Left home in the morning, dodged a trolley car, got wet by a sprinkling cart, before I reached far, nearly got run over.

By a passing train, had to step from underneath a canized acroplane.

Motor car came whopping, as it turned a curve, managed to get past it, but I surely took my nerve.

I love my work sincerely, but getting down to it, it is what wears me out.

THE MEN WHO WON

(Edward Wilbur Mason, in National Magazine.)

There's a voice and a shout for the men who win.

There's the storm of applause and of wonder.

But never a cheer for the men whose sin.

Was only to fall and blunder.

So here is a song for the men who toil With the frowning skies above them And here is a toast for the sons of toil.

To the men who lose—God love them!

Oh, what is success but an empty game?

What is wealth but a bauble ever?

Yet right is a something more than a name.

Though the wrong rides high for ever.

So here is a song for the ones that live.

Though fortune ne'er caress them And here is a toast for the souls that strive.

To the men who lose—God bless them!

There's a cheer for heroes on land and sea.

There's fame for the high endeavor, There's a shout for the knight of chivalry.

There's praise for the strong and clever.

But here is a song for the ones that live.

Though fortune ne'er caress them And here is a toast for the souls that strive.

To the men who lose—God bless them!

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The engagement is announced of Donald G. Read of East France, eldest son of Rev. Edward S. Read of Somerville, to Miss Eva Spring, daughter of Dr. John Spring of Grimsby, England.

Miss Abiani, the familiar singer of the light and the blues in opera and in concerts, will make her last appearance at a concert in London in October next. She has been singing for thirty-nine years, but of late she has appeared seldom even in concerts.

With her recollection she has visited Canada, but it is long since she has sung in the United States. It is said that her long career has left her none too comfortably provided for old age.

Miss Juana Duranona has donated 160 acres of land in Argentina on condition that practical school of agriculture be established thereon. (Consul)

CHILD'S HEAD SOLID MASS OF HUMOR

It Was Awful, Grieved Continually, Had to Hold and Watch Him to Keep Him from Scratching, Suffering Was Dreadful.

Had not Used Half a Set of Cuticura Remedies Before Head Was Clear and Free from Eczema.

"I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best remedy for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on his head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass of itching sore. It was awful, the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him (to keep him) from scratching the sore. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair."

Patrolman Malone of Denver, Colo., was called the other day to stop a quarrel between some women who were neighbors. He heard the story of each woman and then asked, "Will you follow me?" They were puzzled, but gave attention. He laid aside his helmet and club, knelt on the floor and made a short prayer. He left them in a quiet mood, giving the advice, "Cut out this squabbling and pray more."

The British schoolboy is one of the most conservative persons in the world, but the upper school at Eton will probably not resent the latest innovation of the headmaster, the Hon. and Rev. E. Lytleton. He has abolished the use of the birch for upper school boys and substituted an ordinary cane, to be applied over the clothes. For lower boys a birch is still retained, but one of less formidable dimensions than that used hitherto.

The birch at Eton has been a great institution and is not without its history. The most famous headmaster as a bircher, was Dr. Keate, who ruled and birched from 1809 to 1834. His death at the birch are said to have been amazing.

During a school rebellion of 1832 he was known to flog 100 boys in one batch. He is said to have stood out against any reform at Eton, and one can imagine that this latest change would have gone straight to his heart.

One authority says of him: "He had a complete command over his temper. I mean his good temper—but he scarcely ever allowed it to appear."

These wholesale punishments and the more isolated ones of modern days have all taken place in headmaster's room, better known of old as the library. The room is at the top of a staircase, which might have acquired the name of via dolorosa, for up it goes the ceremonial procession, consisting of headmaster, victim, two sixth form prepositors and two younger boys, known as holders down, on each occasion of a flogging. The most interesting piece of furniture in the room is the block against which the switchings are administered, but it is not quite the historic relic which a stranger imagines. More than once the block has been purchased, the original having disappeared in 1836 on the evening of the boat race with Westminster.

The birches are kept in a cupboard in the same room. On the block, as well as on the walls, are cut names of famous men, but it does not necessarily follow that all have been there to be switched. Dr. Keate, however, could claim the distinction of having flogged half the ministers, secretaries, bishops, generals and dukes of the first three-quarters of the last century.

FALSE ENTRIES

ON RAILROAD RECORDS HAVE BEEN BARRED

WASHINGTON, May 10.—In an order issued yesterday, the interstate commerce commission again directs attention to the law that no false entries shall be made upon bills of lading or other railroad records. The order was based upon shipments of cotton which many irregularities have existed, and numerous frauds perpetrated. The commission says that possession by compress having only contractual relation with carriers, is not possession by the carriers, and bills of lading should not be issued except upon evidence of actual possession by the carrier.

The order provides that each bill of lading issued in exchange for another bill of lading shall bear a stamp indicating concretely the nature of the exchange, with points of origin, destination and time of making the exchange, so that all shipments, particularly of cotton, may be traced easily.

FOUGHT OFFICER

Girl Attacked Him With Hatpin

NASHUA, N. H., May 10.—Rosette Curran of Somerville, Mass., an attractively dressed and good looking girl of 15, put up a desperate fight when Patrolman Napoleon Dillard caught her after a chase on Amory street yesterday.

The officer noticed Miss Curran and another girl, said to be Marion Phillips, also of Somerville, in Nashua Union station, where they inquired the price of tickets to New York. Patrolman Dillard thought they were runaway girls and followed them out of the station.

"You must come to the police station and tell your story to the city marshal," the officer told them. No sooner had the words left his lips than the girls ran in opposite directions.

Patrolman Dillard caught Miss Curran and as he did so she drew a pin 10 inches long from her hat and jabbed it into his hand. He took it from her, but she found another in the hat.

Again the policeman alarmed the girl when she left in her belt and found a three-inch pin, still intent on making a pin cushion out of the officer.

Inspector Edward Field, after talking with the girl and finding her chum's name, communicated with the Somerville police. Said the girl to the inspector: "Send me up as far as long as you will, but don't send me home."

The father of the girl who is reported to have made a determined defence with her hat pins, when arrested at Nashua, is Patrick Curran of 31 Lake street, Somerville. He reported her disappearance to the Somerville police within 15 minutes after the police received word from the Nashua police of her detention in that city.

Mr. Curran also furnished to the police the name of the Curran girl's chum, who escaped from the Nashua officers.

HENRY F. CARR

Was Confirmed as Member of the Park Commission

Four Ballots Taken for Principal
Assessor Without a Choice—
The Paving Order Calling for
$75,000 Was Referred to
Committee on Appropriations

Mayor Meehan's appointment of Henry F. Carr as a member of the park commission to succeed Col. Percy Parker was confirmed by the common council last night and Mr. Carr is now a full-fledged commissioner.

Four ballots were taken for principal assessor but there was no choice. The council did not proceed to the election of a superintendent of streets.

The joint order to borrow $75,000 for the paving of Gosham and Dutton streets, Merrimack street and Merrimack square and East Merrimack street was referred to the committee on appropriations.

The meeting was called at 8.15 o'clock. When the result of the roll call had been declared, Mr. Tracy had an explanation to make relative to the charges made at the last meeting, and which resulted in a grand jury investigation.

He said his motive was to defeat the motion to lay over elections of city officials until the last meeting of the year. He believed that in view of such high-handed proceedings as were resorted to that night, he was justified in resorting to drastic measures. However, if he had caused any member of the council to be aggrieved over what he had said, he was sorry for it.

Mr. Coughlin asked that the proposition to build a contagious hospital at the city farm be allowed to come before the city government in the form of a hearing. He said that residents in that section were strongly opposed to the location of a hospital for contagious and infectious diseases there and suggested that two weeks hence, on May 23, a public hearing be held on the matter. It was so voted.

There was a communication before the council from John F. Hallowood, recently appointed smoke inspector, in which he asked that he be given a salary of $700 a year. The communication was referred to the committee on appropriations.

Three ballots were taken for the office of principal assessor. There was no choice and at 8.50 a recess of 20 minutes was taken.

The council got down to business again at 9.15. The mayor's appointment of Henry F. Carr as park commissioner to succeed Percy Parker was taken from the table.

Mr. Carr was declared confirmed, receiving 14 votes. Those who voted for confirmation were: Messrs. Allard, Brady, Cheney, Connor, Corbett, Coughlin, Crowley, Davis, Donohoe, Gargan, Genest, Mahoney, Royal and Tracy.

Those who voted against were: Messrs. Achin, Berard, Bowers, Chadwick, Chapman, Delaronde, Elliott, Fulton, Randleit, C. B. Rogers, J. J. Rogers, Taylor and Whitte.

Various street petitions were read and referred to the committee on streets.

A 4th ballot was taken for principal assessor. Mr. Gray got 9, Mr. Farnham got 7, Mr. Craig 6, Mr. Cheney 2, and Messrs. Hartwell, Tuttle

CHOSEN BISHOP COADJUTOR

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The Rev. Philip Mercer Rhineland of the Episcopal theological school, Cambridge, Mass., was elected bishop coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania. He was chosen on the second ballot, receiving 103 votes.

and Mayberry one each. Still no choice.

Mr. Coughlin spoke about the condition of the South common. He said the place is a disgrace and he introduced an order providing for the erection of a gymnasium and bath house to cost $4500 for the South common. He wanted a committee appointed to look into the matter. Mr. Achin asked that the same thing be done for the Little Canada playground, inasmuch as the children in that section of the city are surely in need of such a thing. He moved an amendment to the effect that the words, "and Little Canada playground," be inserted. Mr. Brady wanted the North common added. The amendments were adopted and the amended order was then adopted. Messrs. Coughlin, Allard and Taylor were appointed members of the special committee to consider the matter.

Mr. Coughlin then spoke about the Stackpole street be macadamized. Mr. Mahoney stated that Stackpole street has not been accepted, and asked that Supt. Putnam state if it is. Mr. Putnam said that it is not.

Mr. Delaronde moved that the order for the loan of $25,000 for the macadamizing of the streets be recommitted to the street committee. Mr. Genest believed it would be wrong to hold up the matter, inasmuch as the streets need fixing up badly and street employees need the work. The action of recommending was then rescinded.

Mr. Genest said he was a member of the street committee last year and remembered that Stackpole street had been accepted. Mr. Davis recalled that action, too. It was then voted to refer the matter to the committee on appropriations.

The joint order to borrow $75,000 for the paving of Gosham and Dutton streets, Merrimack street and Merrimack square and East Merrimack street was referred to the committee on appropriations in concurrence.

The joint order to borrow $5500 to repave Alben street from Hill street to the Alben street bridge came up. Mr. Achin moved immediate action on the order, inasmuch as it would pass the committee on appropriations if referred to it. It was voted to pass the order.

The joint order to expend $1000 from the general treasury fund for the observance of Labor day was passed. This calls for the expenditure of the money under the direction of the mayor or a committee of two aldermen and three councilmen.

The order for $1500 for the observance of July Fourth was adopted in concurrence. This also calls for the expenditure of the money under the direction of the mayor and a committee consisting of two aldermen and three councilmen.

The joint order appropriating $350 for the observance of Memorial day by Gen. Adelbert Ames command, U. S. V. W., was adopted in concurrence.

Mr. Chapman's order for the appropriation of $500 for playgrounds during the summer months on the common in Little Canada and on Fayette street was read. Mr. Chapman said that last year women's organizations of the city had stood back of the matter and had worked unceasingly for the success of the playground movement. These same organizations had started, but had been received very generally with cold hands. Because of the reception accorded them he had introduced the order. The order was adopted.

The order appropriating $1000 for the observance of Memorial day by the Grand Army of the Republic came up, and was adopted in concurrence. The joint order to borrow $5000 for moth and beetle extermination, on a six months' loan, was defeated, 14 to 13.

At this juncture Mr. Genest moved adjournment until next Tuesday night. The motion was declared defeated. Mr. Genest stated that inasmuch as the appropriations committee would take action on the street order within a few days it would be well to have it passed by both branches of the government as soon as possible.

Mr. Royal moved that a ballot be taken for the inspector of lands and buildings. Mr. Allard moved adjournment. Mr. Royal wanted to know why adjournment was desired.

Mr. Achin made a motion to adjourn. Mr. Mahoney asked Mr. Achin his reason for adjourning.

John J. Rogers said that rule 3 of the rules of the common council took care of the matter of motions for adjournment.

Mr. Royal then asked for a ye and nay vote, but the original motion to adjourn was put and carried.

BOSTON, May 10.—Following several months' treatment at the city hospital for mental disorders, Walter Beck, a South End carpenter, threw himself into the Charles river today with fatal result. Beck was 31 years old.

Creamed Asparagus

Asparagus is just now in season. Creamed Asparagus and Asparagus Soup are favorite ways of preparing it. In both cases use Borden's Peerless Brand Evaporated Milk for richness and fine flavor.

RECIPE

Take one bunch of asparagus and cook in boiling salted water till tender. Melt two tablespoonsful butter, add two tablespoonsful flour, and mix until smooth; add a pinch of salt, a little pepper and three-fourths cup Peerless Brand Evaporated Milk and one and one-fourth cups water, stirring continually until it boils. JOHN J. MCCARTHY, President.

TIMOTHY F. ROHAN.

In Observance of 10th Anniversary Last Evening

The Catholic Young Men's Lyceum of St. Patrick's parish last evening observed its 10th anniversary in its rooms in Suffolk street when a banquet was held followed by speech-making and music. Among the guests of honor were Mayor John F. McLaughlin, a charter member, James F. O'Donnell, John W. McEvoy, Rev. John J. McLaughlin, and Bro. O'Donnell, principal of St. Patrick's Boys' school. At 8 o'clock the guests sat down to an excellent menu provided by Caterer Henderson and after the good things had been disposed of Timothy Rohan, chairman of the banquet committee, stepped to the front and introduced the toastmaster President John J. McCarthy. The latter made a graceful speech of welcome and then introduced James E. O'Donnell.

Mr. O'Donnell as usual spoke most entertainingly offering his congratulations upon the achievements of the past decade and expressing the hope that the next 10 will be equally flourishing.

Songs by Andrew Smith and William B. Brady were then enjoyed after which Mayor McLaughlin was introduced. Mayor McLaughlin's Remarks

His Honor received warm welcome and spoke in part as follows: "It is an extreme pleasure for me to have an active part in this observance tonight. I have always taken a personal interest in the C. Y. M. L. from the very start. There are several reasons why I have, and first among them is the fact that I enjoyed the distinction of being the first vice president of the society. I have followed its course from time to time and I must say that it pleases me greatly to see that tonight the society is in as flourishing a condition as I have ever known it. This reflects credit on those who are in charge at the present time and on those who have recently given up the reins of control. It also reflects favorably on your spiritual director and your good pastor, who has ever taken a lively interest in you and your welfare."

There might be many more societies of this nature here in Lowell and in the other cities of the state and country. If there were, the country, the state, and the city would be better for it. It teaches the principles which go to make up many men, good citizens, law-abiding people. Brother members, see to it that you live up to the high ideals which your organization represents, and your rewards will be satisfactory. Remember that success does not come easy. It is generally measured by the opposition it meets, so that you will find your aims, if they be high, are also hard to attain. Above all, have faith in yourselves until you have reached the goal of your ambition and you will have cause to feel proud of your attainments."

Thomas J. Fitzgerald, a former president of the C. Y. M. L. and one of its hardest workers was next introduced, and he said in part:

"Grateful I feel are we, members of the Catholic Young Men's Lyceum of St. Patrick's, to our beloved pastor, to our spiritual director and to those members whose enthusiasm and far-sightedness made it possible for us to be here tonight observing this pleasant occasion. It must be a source of extreme gratification to them to see and to know that after 10 years have elapsed we have withstood the test of stability. The founders of our society represent the flower and youth of the parish and in order that we too may become worthy we must endeavor to better ourselves along the lines laid down by our teachers, first and above all by attending holy communion in a body not less than once every three months; secondly, to cultivate our minds in such a manner that we may be better able to cope with our daily labors in life and strive to give the very best that is in us, so that we may be successful, not in the ordinary sense of having completed something that is worth while, but rather that we have done the very best we could."

The program of today offers to the young man an opportunity to better himself in many ways than one. Being a church society it looks after his spiritual welfare which should be first and foremost. Then again it gives him a social side which is carefully and well looked after and it also provides a physical training.

In conclusion let me say that it is my most earnest wish that on the next anniversary we may find the power and influence of our society fourfold and that our successors may say of our work as we have said of our predecessors, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'

A letter of regret was read from

Humphrey C. Sullivan who was down on the program for a speech.

John J. Neeson gave three most acceptable solos after which Patrick Harrington sang and John W. McEvoy spoke briefly.

Brother O'Donnell was then introduced and he spoke most encouragingly on the future. He gave many word-pictures of what may come in the years before us, what it might be our chance to enjoy, what it might be our misfortune to encounter, and what it might be our good luck to secure. He laid stress on the importance of living a straightforward life and making use of the advantages which are presented to the youth on all sides. "Live up to the teachings of your church," said he in conclusion, "and you cannot help being a credit and a help to yourself and the community in which you live. Your friends will be proud of you, your city will be glad to rank you as one of its citizens, and you will have pride in yourself."

Timothy F. Rohan sang, and Rev. John J. McLaughlin, the popular spiritual director of the society made the closing remarks.

Peter Noonan presented the society a large photograph of the present board of directors.

President McCarthy accepted the gift on behalf of the members. The accompanist of the evening was Paul Keyes.

PLEASANT AFFAIR

"Cantata of Flowers"
Was Presented

The members of the Fifth Street Baptist church and their friends enjoyed a pleasant evening last night when they gathered in the church in large numbers and listened to the "Cantata of the Flowers" sung by the children's chorus of the church. The affair was given under the auspieces of the Ladies' Aid society for the benefit of the church, of which Rev. Forrester A. MacDonald is pastor. The attendance was large and very appreciative.

Pastor.

The children were dressed in the colors of the flowers they represented and made a pretty picture on the platform, which was beautifully decorated with pine boughs and pink flowers. The singing was under the direction of Prof. C. E. Barnes with Miss Marion Swan at the piano.

The girls were all well rendered and that is saying a lot of the careful training the children underwent. Miss Maudie Brown scored highly with her interesting readings and had to respond to several encores.

The program was as follows:

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A bill of merit, one that should prove more entertaining than any for months past, is this week's offering at the Merrimack Square theatre. Places and Roslyn, high-class singers, are the head-liners, and their act is among the very best heard on a local vaudeville stage in seasons. Both are excellent singers and have a rare opportunity to display their skill in the program which they give. On Friday night they will give an operatic recital that should appeal strongly to lovers of good music. The other numbers on the week's Song of the Mosaic: May Berger, Gladys Farris, Greta Darling, Belle Thomas, Verna Nell, Marlan McCord, Ethel West, Mildred Dubois.

THE OPERA HOUSE

Richard (Himself) Carle, who is to be seen at the Opera House, on May 24, in his latest success, "Jumping Jupiter" is at once author, actor, composer, dancer and producer—doing all these things well. He fashioned his present play from a popular farce by Sydney Rosenfeld, rebuilding it on modern musical comedy lines, and staged the production as well. The music is by Karl Hoschman of "Madam Sherry" fame. "Jumping Jupiter" has just completed a brilliant run of two months at the Tremont theatre, Boston.—Adv.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

After years of effort, a success has finally been achieved in the attempt to reproduce on a stage of a theatre a three ring circus in active operation, and local theatre-goers will be treated to one of the theatrical sensations of recent years when "Polly of the Circus" comes to the Opera House, tomorrow night, where it will be presented in an identical manner that attracted enthusiastic crowds to the Liberty theatre, in New York City, for bill are Marlow and Plunkett, comedians, whose laughable comedy sketch "The Deaf Student," is making one of the biggest hits of the season. Wheeler and Harcourt, are two clever young women who give a comedy sketch that touches on the suffragette movement, and which is really the funniest act of its kind seen here in some time. The argument favoring woman's rights, given by one of the young women, is a real treat. Yeager and Kemp, present an acrobatic act that is clever and new songs. The motion pictures are excellent.—Adv.

one solid year. Never before has so elaborate and successful an attraction been brought here, and "Polly of the Circus" already promises to establish new records for attendance.—Adv.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Tears at parting have been in vogue and appropriate ever since the world began, and hence there are tears at the Hathaway theatre this week at the closing performances, until September, of the Donald Meek stock company. But the tears that flow at each performance of that uproariously funny comedy, "The Bachelor's Honeymoon," haven't the slightest tinge of sadness about them, as they are born of excessive laughter, as the result of the numerous funny complications which appear during the play. Messrs. Meek and DeDeyn as a comedian is to the main, her brother, Miss Lillian Neidermeyer, as the actress, has a part in which she displays to excellent advantage her clever dramatic ability, not to speak of her personal charm. This will be the last opportunity to see the company until, next fall, as Mr. Meek goes to Boston to open with the John Craig stock company at the Castle Square theatre, while Mr. DeDeyn will open his summer stock company at Scranton, Pa. Seats for all performances this week may be ordered in advance by telephone, $11.—Adv.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

A comedy bill that will please is the rule at this house for the first three days of the week. Valveno and Lamore, eccentric acrobats, deal out some funny comedy in their act. Dainty Diane is a winsome singing comedienne, and Mabel Bartlett & Co. appear in their comedy creation entitled "The Janitor." All the latest Biograph feature pictures.—Adv.

The preliminary work on Pleasant street, Dracut, where $1000 is to be expended in building a macadam road was started yesterday under the supervision of Road Surveyor Clarence L. Richardson.

The work will extend from Bridge street, Dracut Centre, in a westerly direction toward the Navy Yard section. A number of men and teams are now engaged in putting on the gravel. The grade of the road will be raised throughout and thus no digging is required in the preliminary work.

The work, when completed, should greatly improve the thoroughfare and its benefit will no doubt be appreciated.

In Case of Emergency

"Every family should keep in the house for use in case of emergency before a physician could be found some remedy for sudden throat trouble when every moment counts. I can recommend nothing better than Toiletine."

That is the way a prominent Vermont physician feels about Toiletine.

That is the way thousands of families feel about Toiletine too. They would not feel safe without Toiletine in the house.

How many times a slight throat or chest trouble has developed into something serious, perhaps fatal, simply because nothing was taken till it was too late.

Toiletine may be taken internally or used externally with perfect safety. It relieves irritation, removes inflammation and restores to a healthy normal condition the affected part. The action of Toiletine is quick, soothing and effectual.

Send the name of your druggist and three two-cent stamps for sample bottle of Toiletine (1/4 regular 25c size).

SKETCHES OF HEDBERG WHO MADE A WORLD'S RECORD AT CANDLE PINS AT THE CRESCENT ALLEYS LAST NIGHT.

Carl Hedberg of Worcester Scored 167 at Candlepins

Carl Hedberg of Worcester, individual candlepin champion of 1910, was the honor man in the National duck and candlepin bowling congress at the Crescent alleys yesterday. The Worcester crack in the two-men candlepin event hit a single string of 167, which broke the world's competition string record by four pins.

The previous record of 163 was shared by Louis Ballas and Warren Brown of Boston, the latter scoring on Wednesday last. For his three strings in the event, Hedberg had a total of 370, the best made by any man in the tournament. Unfortunately his partner, Butler, got a bunch of breaks and tough hits, scoring but 270. It gave the team a total of 640. Which and Hunt of Worcester also hit 640, and the two teams are tied for fourth money.

On his record single Hedberg opened by tripling strikes. He got 30 pins in the first box, 27 in the second and 13 in the third. On his fourth he got nine pins and spared for 17. On the fifth, which gave him 161 pins at the half, he annexed a 16-pin spare on his sixth and cleaned up 10 pins on his seventh. A 16-pin spare on his eighth box gave him 142 pins, and then he got his first bad break, a six box. He finished with a 19-pin strike for 167 pins, four pins better than was ever done before.

Hedberg's record deprives Warren Brown of a special cup which members of the tournament committee were going to present to him for rolling 165. Instead, it will go to Hedberg and will help to heal the wound caused by his becoming an ex-champion, as he rolled but 288 in the individual class which he won last year.

Butler's failure to hit the pins with Hedberg in the two-men class was compensated for in the three-men class at candlepins, when he contributed a single of 147 and total of 316. He rolled with Winch and Hedberg and the trio lead the class with 928.

In the individual class Winch hit the ducks for 327, which is fourth in the list. Derosier cracked out 320 at candles and he is in third place. Phil and Brown being tied for first with 344. Derosier and Al Lavigne are sixth in the two-men class for candles with a total of 535.

The Auditorium alleys of Maiden were represented at candlepins by Hedge, Robson, Pratt, Allen and Sullivan and the men did well. Hedge, Allen and Sullivan contributed 886, which is second best in the three-men class. For an individual, Hedge split the pins for 331, and he is in fifth place. Sullivan had a good start on his individual, but fell down on the third string. In the five-men event the team had hard luck and got but 1363.

The Commonwealth duckpin team of Worcester, was forced to cancel its entry in the five-men class in order to catch the train for home. The men had an excellent start and were well over 500 on the first string.

A prominent Worcester roller was substituted by mistake and rolled in the individual class but on the arrival of the secretary of the congress his score was thrown out, owing to the fact that he was not a member of the congress. Several Worcester rollers desired to enter the events on their arrival, but owing to the fact that the entry list had closed on April 24 they were unable to do so.

The last team to roll was the Bowla-way combination of Lawrence, and the youngsters hit 1448, which stands third in the list.

In the Last 40 Years Reached by B. & M. Common Stock

BOSTON, May 10.—A new low record in the last 40 years for Boston & Maine common stock was made shortly after the opening of the stock market today when the stock touched 101 as the result of the reduction of the dividend yesterday from 5 to 4 per cent. New York, New Haven & Hartford, which controls the Boston & Maine, through the Boston Holding Co., also declined 3 points to 142. Later there was a rally in Boston & Maine to 103.

At today's session of the lower branch of the legislature Representative Hayes introduced an order asking the railroad commission to investigate the reduction of the dividend. The order was laid over until tomorrow.

President Mellen stated today that the reduction was based solely on the recent poor earnings of the road. The directors believe that the reduction will make easier the program of rehabilitation and that it will eventually prove a benefit to the company.

STRIKE STILL ON

Trouble at Hodges Fibre Co. Not Settled

SPRINGFIELD, May 10.—There was no prospect today of the immediate settlement of the difficulty at the factory of the Hodges Fibre Co. at Indian Orchard, where 100 employees were thrown out of work yesterday as the result of a strike of 200 weavers. The strike, it is claimed by the company officials, was due to racial antipathy, the weavers, 90 per cent of whom are French Canadians, objecting to the employment of a man believed to be of the Polish race. The weavers, believing that the new man, Karl Hannuski, was not only a Pole but also the agent of a number of outside weavers, appointed a committee to wait on Supt. Stevenson and demand the man's discharge. Mr. Stevenson convinced the committee that the man was a Swede and was not an agent of others. The committee was satisfied but the weavers as a whole declared that Swedes were under their ban, as well as Greeks, Italians, Russians and Syrians, and that none of those races should be employed in the weaving department. When Mr. Stevenson informed that the weavers would not return to work he promptly closed the entire plant. The plant will not be reopened until the striking weavers come back as a body. No attempt will be made by the management to fill the places of the strikers. The men are not organized.

Among the recommendations contained in the state deputy's report, all of which were adopted, were: First, that each council pledge the sum of one month payable in one annual payment, for the support of the Catholic charitable bureau; second, that a representative of the state council, under the direction of the state deputy, be appointed to serve in connection with the committee of priests appointed by the archbishop and known as the charitable bureau committee; third, that a committee of five be appointed by the state deputy to raise funds to endow a free room at the Carney hospital for members of the order; fourth, that the state officers be empowered to hold the annual state banquet in their judgment; fifth, that the state deputy be empowered to appoint a committee for the formulation of plans for Columbus day.

Five Recommendations

The election of officers resulted as follows: William J. O'Neill of Boston state deputy; Louis Watson of Brighton state secretary; Henry B. Hagan of Boston state treasurer; Robert J. Thomas of Lowell state auditor; James E. Dunleavy of Springfield state advocate; Timothy F. Lyons of Amesbury state wardens. The state chaplain is not an elective office, but is appointed by the archbishop.

James J. Donohue of Lynn, Edward Donovan of Greenfield, A. J. Doon of Natick, Edward J. O'Neill of Boston, Louis P. Pfan of Roslindale, James A. Ryan of Allston, George C. Shields of Mansfield and John T. Simpson of Boston were chosen delegates to the national convention in Detroit in August.

John J. Burke of Boston, George H. Campbell of North Adams, James J. Gorman of Bridgewater, James A. Killey of Somerville, George E. Larkin of Roslindale, Philip L. McMahon of Boston, Michael A. Morrissey of Indian Orchard, Daniel E. O'Brien of Salem, Dr. Alven F. Rose of Boston and Daniel J. Sullivan of Fall River were elected alternates.

The recent trustees of the K. of C. are: Dr. Francis J. Healey of Whitman, Daniel L. Prendergast of Boston and Thomas H. Reilly of Westboro, were re-elected.

It was decided to hold the convention next year in Boston.

Started Fire in a Building in Boston's Chinatown

He Was Badly Burned and is Not Expected to Live—He Was About to be Taken to an Insane Hospital

BOSTON, May 10.—Soo Hoo Ging started Chinatown today while on his way from the Danvers insane hospital to some similar Chinese institution on the banks of the Hoang Ho and is likely to leave his bones on American soil by reason of severe burns received in a fire which he is said to have set in order to end his life.

The Chinaman was under guard of two attendants who took him to Chinatown to visit friends before being deported.

Soo slipped from the clutches of the attendants, dashed into a basement, barricaded the door and then set fire to the pile of furniture. When the firemen arrived Chinatown was seething with excitement and smoke was rolling out of the basement. A badly singed and burned Chinaman was hauled to the station and hustled to the police station, where it is said he will probably die.

ROUTE OF RECORD BREAKING DIRECT TELEPHONE LINE

NEW YORK, May 10.—Telephone connection between New York and Denver, a distance of 2011 miles, without recourse to relay stations has been opened for commercial use by the American Telephone and Telegraph company. By the perfection of what is called the loaded phonograph circuit three persons can talk to Chicago and a fourth to Denver over two sets of wires, and simultaneously eight separate telegraphic messages can be sent over the same wires, to Chicago and two others to Denver, and all without interference. The line to Denver is the longest line ever established over which conversation could be had directly, without relays. A demonstration was given of this new system in the executive chambers of the American Telephone and Telegraph company at 155 Broadway, and while Mayor Robert W. Speer of Denver, Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago and Mayor James C. Doherty of New York were having a three-cornered conversation ten telegraphic messages were passing over the wires. Theodore N. Vall, president of the company, who is responsible for this step forward in the science of long distance communication, has sailed for Europe. He was notified by wireless of the success of the project and was greatly delighted.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Mrs. Dodge Questioned About Heath's Movements

GUINDBALL, Vt., May 10.—With the conclusion of the testimony of Mrs. Florence M. Dodge of Lunenburg as a witness in her own defense in her trial for the alleged murder of William Heath of Dalton, N. H., the defense rested at 10.20 a. m. today. The cross-examination of Mrs. Dodge brought out a surprise when at the dictation of Attorney General Sargent Mrs. Dodge wrote on a piece of paper an account of the movements of "the man who shot Mr. Heath," as well as a brief description of him. This was entered as an exhibit, as was also another bit of dictation written by Mrs. Dodge at the attorney general's request. This second dictation was on a paper folded so as to resemble an envelope and bore the address "Attorney General Sargent, Lunenburg, Vt." A few moments later the attorney general entered an envelope and placed it on an exhibit and then, passing it to Mrs. Dodge, he asked her if it were in her handwriting. Mrs. Dodge's hand was perfectly steady as she read the writing of the paper and then, handing the exhibits back to the attorney general, she said that she had written them. The curiosity of the spectators in the courtroom was to see the dictation whetted to a keen edge, but no information as to the nature of the writing identified by Mrs. Dodge as her own was made public.

Mrs. Dodge appeared almost gay when she entered court today, accompanied, as usual, by the jail matron and her daughter, Mrs. Ida Bell. Attorney General Sargent at once resumed his cross-examination of Mrs. Dodge. As she took the stand the attorney general addressed her with a cheery "Good morning," and she replied with a smile. The attorney general brought out the fact that Mrs. Dodge talked with Heath as much as business required. The first work that Heath did on the last day of his life, Mrs. Dodge said, was to put on the paper that was to be put on the wall of the bedroom in which he was killed. At the time she was in the kitchen. After that Heath began to put the border on the bedroom paper. Mrs. Dodge said that she began ironing in the kitchen between nine and ten o'clock that forenoon and a little later she went into the bedroom and washed the bedspread. She said that Heath had asked her to come in and see if the paper was done satisfactorily. Then Heath went into the barn to milk the cow. When he came in the paint did not match and he went back into the barn to make it the proper shade. When he next came in she was working in the kitchen.

Later she went into the bedroom and while Heath was painting she wiped the wallpaper. She watched him part of the time and knew what he was doing all of the time.

The last time she saw Heath alive she said, was when he was in the kitchen preparing the wash. She was in the kitchen when she heard the shots. She hesitated for a while, she said, as to what action to take. The attorney general then abruptly changed his line of questioning and asked Mrs. Dodge where she was Dec. 27. She said she did not remember. She spent Christmas at the home of Robert Bennett of Concord, Vt., but did not remember where she went after that. Just before Christmas, she said, she purchased some tinted paper at St. Johnsbury.

"How old was your husband when he died?" asked the attorney general. "Seventy-five years and twelve days," was the answer.

The attorney general then resumed his questioning regarding the occurrences on the day of Heath's death. Mrs. Dodge said that she finally went into the bedroom where she found Heath lying face downward in a pool of blood. She knelt by his body and pulled him toward her. When Rev. Mr. Howard came into the house they went into the bedroom together and she left the bedroom when Dr. Breidling came. She had not noticed what Heath had done with the wash.

"December 27, 1910. The man who shot Mr. Heath was tall, with heavy dark hair and wore a cap. They had words. They had words over money. After the shooting he went into the cellar for a few minutes, then went up a fence and lay down beside the fence," she said.

This was entered as an exhibit by the state. Passing to Mrs. Dodge a piece of paper folded in the shape of an envelope, the attorney general had her write an address, as follows:

Attorney General Sargent, Lunenburg, Vt.

This address was also entered as a state's exhibit. In answer to further questions Mrs. Dodge said that Heath was always agreeable about the house but was not a free talker. She thought that he was unusually talkative on the last day of his life.

It was then that the attorney general passed to Mrs. Dodge an envelope and a piece of paper which he had just entered as further exhibits for the state and asked her to read the letter and say if it was in her handwriting. Mrs. Dodge's hand was perfectly steady as she held the letter and after she had read it through she said that she had written it as well as the address on the envelope. No intimation of the text of this letter was made in the court.

Under the guidance of Mr. Howe, one of her counsel, Mrs. Dodge in indirect examination corrected one of her statements made yesterday regarding her position when Heath was painting over the door. When the question was asked her yesterday she said she thought it referred to Heath's mixing the paste for the wall paper. So far as she knew, Heath used no putty in the bedroom on the morning of the day he was killed.

Mrs. Dodge's signed statement on the day that Heath was killed and witnessed by Dr. Breidling was then read and entered as an exhibit.

The defense then rested at 10.22 a. m.

SALEM, May 10.—A courtship that began over a candy counter and a secret wedding that took place more than a year ago were revealed yesterday by the formal announcement that Miss Gertrude Russell Putnam, descendant of Gen. Israel Putnam of revolutionary fame and member of one of the oldest families of Salem, had been married to Constantine C. Moustakis, a proprietor of one of Salem's largest candy parlors, in a runaway wedding at Nashua, N. H., early in the spring of 1910.

About two years ago Miss Putnam visited her brother's home in Salem. A handsome clerk (the proprietor) waited on her. An introduction followed.

Prospects of war between Greece and Turkey developed during the courtship. Moustakis organized companies of young Greeks in Salem, who were uniformed and drilled in preparation for their mother country. Moustakis instituted naturalization clubs in Essex county at the same time.

Probability of Moustakis leaving this country led to hasty marriage at Nashua, after which the bride returned to her home. Moustakis has been calling on her almost every evening since. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Putnam of 34 Bridge street. She is a direct descendant of General Israel Putnam on her father's side, and from the old Salem family of Westcotts on her mother's side. She is the niece of Thomas J. Putnam, superintendent of the Congressional library in Washington, and a close friend of President Taft.

She is a talented pianist, vocalist and artist. An uncle of the bride is in Hume, Cal., a mine owner, has sent certificates of stock as his wedding gift.

The groom comes of an ancient family, his father being patriarch (mayor) of Longfellow, a part of Sparta, Greece, for 20 years. Constantine Moustakis attended Athens University. He came to this country 15 years ago, locating in Lowell. He has had business places in Lowell, Gloucester and Salem. He is an apt linguist and a member of a number of fraternal organizations in Salem.

KILLED A FRIEND

Who Was Assisting in Hunt for Grave Robbers

GREAT FALLS, Me., May 10.—A trap laid by H. G. Conrad, one of the wealthiest men in the state, and his brother, by which they hoped to catch the men who stole last year the body of the former's one year old son in its grave here, last night resulted in the killing of Joseph Hamilton, former sheriff of Cascade county, a friend who was assisting the brothers in their plan to capture the grave robbers.

Recently Conrad was notified his child's body would be returned to him if $1500 was left beside a lantern he would find burning at a lonely spot on the Port Denton road. Making up a dummy package, the Conrads proceeded to the place in an automobile. Hamilton was to follow and take the robbers by surprise. Coming to the point where a light was burning, some distance from the road they dropped their package and proceeded on their way. About a mile farther on they found the lantern burning by the roadside and realized they had made a mistake. Returning to get the package again they saw stooping over it the figure of a man who straightened up with a gun in his hand as they approached. Both Conrads immediately opened fire, the man dropping at the first shot. It was Hamilton.

SOUTH COMMON

MANY AGREE THAT ROWDYISM IS CARRIED ON THERE

The communication addressed to The Sun by Mr. Michael Corbett, calling attention to the rowdyism carried on at the South common was freely commented upon about town today and persons in a position to know, persons living in the vicinity of and frequenting the common daily, and sometimes several times a day, declare that what Mr. Corbett said was true and that he would not have exaggerated had he gone considerably further. One man says that the common is infested with blackguards, bums, rowdies and high-way robbers. That snatch thieves ply their nefarious work there was demonstrated a few days ago, and in broad daylight, when three men robbed a woman of her handbag containing a small amount of money. The bag was snatched from her hand and passed from one to the other of the three men. This woman, it is stated, knows one of the three men but for some reason or other she does not want to make formal complaint to the police.

NEEDLESS RUN

FIRE DEPARTMENT RESPONDED TO ALARM FROM BOX 238

An alarm from box 238 at 1:37 o'clock this afternoon gave the fire department a needless run for a brush fire which was burning in Billerica. When the local firemen reached the city line they were ordered to return to their respective stations.

A telephone alarm at 12:29 o'clock this afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a grass fire in Andrews street.

TALBOT MILLS

HAVE DECIDED TO CURTAIL PRODUCTION

Beginning this week and until further notice the Talbot mills in North Billerica will shut down Thursday night for the rest of the week.

Lack of orders is the cause of this curtailment, said the paymaster of the plant to a representative of this paper this afternoon. Just how long the curtailment will last is not known.

SAILOR TIE CLUB

At the home of Miss Anna Guilfoyle, 84 Andover street, a meeting of the Sailor Tie club was held, at which the officers elected were: Miss Anna Guilfoyle, president; Miss Alice Shannahan, vice president; Miss Rita Burke, treasurer. After the meeting refreshments were served.

GENERAL NAVARRO

Said to Have Deserted the City of Juarez

General Navarro, the federal commander, continued his desperate resistance in Juarez this morning to the onslaughts of the rebels under Francisco Madero, Jr.

After fierce fighting that lasted over four hours it was reported that Navarro had deserted the city.

The engagement began again in earnest at 8:25 o'clock. Juarez is flamed by the fire of last night. The rebels made desperate stands from behind their barricades. The rebels pushed the fighting. The federalists found refuge in a church and at the custom house but the latest reports declare that they were driven from both these buildings by their enemies.

The rebels are throwing dynamite bombs and both sides are using machine guns.

Navarro expected reinforcements to the number of 300 men at one o'clock. Wounded men are being brought into El Paso and refugees are pouring across the bridge that separates Juarez from the American city. Bullets are still coming across the river into El Paso, but so far as known this morning no more Americans have been killed or wounded.

Tla Juana, the Mexican town in lower California, captured by the rebels yesterday, is still in their possession. There has been no further fighting at that point.

The federal forces that were in Agua Prieta evacuated that town early today.

It is reported that federal forces were drawn into a trap yesterday near Sallila and lost 55 men killed in the subsequent fighting with the rebels.

Stealthily creeping into the federal stronghold under cover of darkness and keeping up a hand to hand attack during the night the insurgent army had practically captured Juarez at 11 o'clock today. General Madero started for the town to establish his headquarters there while the rebel cavalry under Col. Villa, the fleetest of the revolutionist horsemen were in hot pursuit of a detachment of federalists fleeing southward.

The rebels swarmed into the town. The residents of the town apparently satisfied that the fighting was over came from their shelters and the shouts of exultation could be heard on the United States side. The sun burned fiercely and the revolutionists were fought for hours without food or water were relieved by the residents of the town, most of whom seemed to be insurgent sympathizers.

THOUSANDS STARVING

Report From Labrador Says There is Intense Suffering

NEW YORK, May 10.—Between 5000 and 6000 settlers on the Labrador coast are suffering severely from food shortage and the effects of a severe winter, according to advices received by the Grenfell association of America.

The news came in a telegram to Dr. W. T. Grenfell, missionary and explorer and head of the Grenfell association from Battle Harbor, Labrador.

"Battle Harbor, April 29.—People on the coast are starving. Have wired government for help."

"Dr. John Grieve."

Dr. Grieve is one of the missionary doctors in charge of the hospital at Battle Harbor. Every winter he makes a trip from 1200 to 1500 miles along the coast and it is assumed he has reported on conditions as soon as possible after returning to Battle Harbor.

In response, the Grenfell association is sending $500 to St. John's, N. F., where supplies will be purchased for forwarding to Battle Harbor by volunteer doctors who left yesterday for the scene. The relief party consists of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Greer, who are going to Green Bay, and Dr. Harrison H. Webster, who will proceed to Battle Harbor.

All reports from the mission field are that dry flour is the only means of subsistence the settlers have had for some time, and that their clothing supplies are short.

REPORT NO SURPRISE

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 10.—Yesterday's information from Battle Harbor, Labrador, that the 5000 inhabitants of the coast are starving, was not surprising to those interested here. It has been known for months that starvation threatened the hardy fisherfolk on the coast, which belongs to the colony of Newfoundland. But knowledge of their extremity had no result so far as relieving the situation was concerned.

Repeated efforts have been made to bring help to the starving people. Vessels laden with supplies of food and clothing endeavored repeatedly to pierce the ice floes which enclosed the coast, but were always forced back, sometimes badly damaged.

The winter season only recently closed was an unusually severe one.

even for that rigorous climate. The actual extent of the suffering and the number of deaths cannot be known for some time.

The misfortunes of the Labrador people are traceable directly to the failure of last season's cod fisheries. It is expected the relief party organized here will be able to make its way to Battle Harbor, and the Labrador coast, with no mishap, as the ice has broken up and is drifting south.

ODD FELLOWS

MADE GAIN OF 408 MEMBERS THE PAST YEAR

BOSTON, May 10.—Satisfaction was felt by the large gathering of members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the Massachusetts district today over the favorable reports of the financial and membership committees. A gain of four hundred and eight members was shown in the Massachusetts district during the past year and proportionate increases in other states of the union was announced.

The report of the grand lodge of the United States described the scope of the order and was largely statistical, enumerating the number of lodges and total membership throughout the English-speaking world.

HIS BACK INJURED

Young Man Was Blown From a Ladder

Henri Brassard, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Brassard of 188 Aiken street, narrowly escaped being seriously injured this morning by falling off a ladder from a height of about 15 feet. As it was the young man sustained a slight injury to his back, but that did not stop him from working.

At 11 o'clock this morning Brassard and Michel Huot were painting the O'Flahavan residence in Colonial avenue. Brassard was near the roof standing on a ladder when a brisk wind blew him off. He landed on his back in the yard and remained there for a few seconds. His partner who was busy at the other end of the building, rushed to Brassard's assistance when he saw him fall, but the latter needed no aid for he got right up on his feet again and went back to work. He complained later of pains in his back and went to his home, where he was attended by a physician. His return to his work in the afternoon, feeling none the worse for the dangerous experience he went through in the forenoon.

FINDS NO FRAUD

Court Dismissed Bill Brought Against Dracut Woman

Finding no evidence of fraud to induce the plaintiff to deed his property Judge Richardson, in the equity session of superior court yesterday, dismissed the bill brought by Daniel Goodhue, aged 84, a farmer in Reading, against Mrs. Little E. Hunting of Dracut, seeking a reconveyance of his property.

He claimed that he transferred his farm, worth $1600 and personally worth between $300 and $400 to her in consideration of taking care of him for life, providing him with two rooms in her house.

He said she had him removed to the loft in the barn and his niece, Mrs. Augusta E. Cook of Reading, took him to her home.

Mrs. Hunting claimed the plaintiff understood the conditions of the transaction and she gave him a bond for $300, the conditions of which she alleged she had complied with. She said he went to the loft in the barn, which he appeared to like better. The defendant claimed she never saw the bond referred to and did not know it required her to furnish him with two rooms in her house.

The judge dismissed the bill without prejudice to the right of either party to sue for damages for alleged breach of the bond for $300.

BURNED TO GROUND

Buildings on Page's Farm in Tyngsboro Destroyed by Fire

The old Plaisted farm, located at the approach to the "Dip" at Williams farm in Tyngsboro, was practically destroyed by fire this morning. The neighbors were unable to cope with the flames and sent in seven telephone alarms to the local fire department.

Inasmuch as the committee on fire department has raised objection to the apparatus leaving the city for fires it was not until the information had been received that the flames were spreading towards this city that Deputy Chief Norton despatched the Westford street chemical to the scene.

The members of the Tyngsboro fire department were summoned to a brisk battle with the flames for several hours thought that they had extinguished the fire, but the blaze broke out afresh this morning and before the volunteer fire fighters could arrive on the scene the flames wafted by a strong wind spread to the Plaisted property and ignited the one and one-half story house, which was over 100 years old.

The two larger buildings were ablaze when the chemical arrived on the scene and the local fire fighters were instrumental in keeping the flames from spreading to the adjoining property.

While the buildings destroyed are owned by Mr. D. L. Page of this city, they are not located on what is known as the Page farm.

The damage is estimated at between $1500 and $2000. F. C. Church carried the insurance.

VETERAN BRICKLAYER

Laid Brick in the First Hunting- ton Hall

"I laid some of the bricks in the first Huntington hall that was built in Lowell and I would like to lay a few bricks on this new building on the old site," said Richard T. Sylvester to one of the men at work on the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Mr. Sylvester was introduced to Inspector Henry M. Southworth and repeated his request. "I have brought along the old trowel that I used on the first Huntington hall and I'll use it to lay a few bricks here if you have no objection."

Mr. Southworth was glad to grant the request of the veteran bricklayer and the old man handled the bricks and the trowel with speed and precision. "I could do a good job yet if I wanted to," he said, "but it's about time that I was taking things easy. I laid bricks on the gate house here, the continued, pointing to the little brick gate house of the Locks & Canals, in Merrimack and Dutton streets, and that's one of the best pieces of brick work in this country. I think that was built in 1848 and it's as good today as the day it was built."

The old man looked at the little gate house with admiring eyes and he hoped that the new Y. M. C. A. building would stand the test of years as well as the gate house has stood it. Mr. Sylvester is 82 years old and lives at the corner of Westford and Royal streets.

The New Y. M. C. A.

Work on the new Y. M. C. A. building is progressing very favorably. The putting in of the foundation was a mammoth job but the real work is so hidden as not to be seen so as to be thoroughly appreciated by the passer-by. The laying of the concrete floor slabs and the waterproofing of the boiler room will complete, in a general way, the foundation. Then the brick work will be on with a rush and the outlines of the big building will be made to show themselves. It will be the first building of tapestry brick in Lowell, and the bricks are said to have a very pretty effect. They are known as the bricks of many shades and, laid at random, they display almost all the colors of the rainbow. The brick work has been started on the gymnasium end of the building and rapid strides will be made as soon as the other fellows clear the way.

Re-elected State Auditor of the Knights of Columbus

BOSTON, May 10.—Several important matters came up for consideration at the 13th annual convention of the state council, Knights of Columbus, yesterday, probably the most important being a resolution favoring the affiliation of the order with the federation of Catholic societies. The resolution adopted was: "That it is the sense of the Massachusetts state council to favor Catholic federation and to instruct its delegates to the national convention of the order to exert every endeavor to have action taken permitting local councils to affiliate with the federation of Catholic societies."

The insurance program is always one that causes more or less discussion in conventions, particularly regarding the rates affecting members after reaching the age of 80. Yesterday was no exception in this regard as a resolution looking toward reducing the rate of the older members provoked the most spirited debate of the day.

The position taken by the national council was defended by National Ad-

NEW STATE HIGHWAY

To Be Viewed by Legislative Committee Tomorrow

The committee on roads and bridges of which Senator Hubbard is senate chairman, will investigate the new state highway in process of construction between Lowell and Lawrence. They will go to Lawrence this evening and in the morning will go over the road and come to Lowell. If they have time they will go to Tyngsboro and investigate the state highway work in that section and also look at the Tyngsboro bridge, the only bridge in Middlesex county that is partly supported by the county. Senator Hubbard having introduced a bill providing that the county share the expense of maintenance of the bridges across the Merrimack in Lowell, as is done in other counties.

Disagree on Charter

Within a week the committee on cities has held three executive meetings for the discussion of the proposed new city charter for Lowell at which the committee has each time disagreed as to the form of its report. The Sun's informant on the matter who speaks authoritatively is of the opinion that a report of some kind will be made within a few days.

RAHAT, Morocco, May 6.—(Delayed)—A French convoy was attacked near Sale by Caid Bouzama and his tribesmen and forced to return here. Fourteen of the French out of the detachment of 21 men are missing. The food and munitions of war under guard of the convoy were lost to the rebels.

WARRANTS OUT

For Arrest of Postoffice Inspectors

FARGO, N. D., May 10.—Warrants were issued last night for the arrest of Postoffice Inspectors Carl Egge and George Drake on the charge of tampering with the mails. The complaint was made by Carl Van Dyke of St. Paul, executive agent of the Railway Mail Clerks Union. He charges that the inspectors took from the postoffice at Grand Forks and opened a sealed package containing the charter of the Grand Forks division of the Railway Mail Clerks Union. Van Dyke states that the packages were opened to enable the inspectors to get names of officers and members of the union and that the seals were replaced on the package.

LAI D AT REST

Funeral of Officer McKay This Morning

The funeral of the late Police Officer John H. McKay, one of the most popular and one of the most efficient members of the Lowell Police department, took place this morning from his home, 130 Bartlett street and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. While the police department made no formal appearance there were many representatives of the department at the service which was held in the immaculate Conception church, including Police Commissioners Mulvaney and Boulger; Supt. Welch; Lieut. Freeman; Lieut. Martin Connors and Sergt. Hugh Maguire. Besides many patrolmen and well known citizens.

At the church solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Fr. Fox, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. I., deacon and Rev. Fr. McQuade, O. M. I., sub-deacon. The choir under the direction of Mr. Charles P. Smith sang Schmidt's requiem and the solos of the mass were given by Miss Margaret Knowles, Edward Shea and William Gookin. At the offertory Le-bach's "Pie Jesu" was sung by Mr. John Dalton. After the elevation, "O Merito Passionis" was sung by Mrs. Terence Cox and at the conclusion of mass "Da Profundis" was rendered by Mr. James B. Donnelly. The solos in the Gloria were given by Miss Margaret Knowles, Edward Shea and William Gookin. At the offertory Le-bach's "Pie Jesu" was sung by Mr. John Dalton. THE AVERILL CASE

MONTELEONE, Vt., May 10.—A petition for a new trial was yesterday filed in supreme court by attorneys for Mrs. Josephine Averill of St. Albans, who was indicted for the murder of Frank Averill, her husband, with a shotgun, Oct. 10, 1910, and convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to 10 years in the state prison at Windsor.

The respondent claims surprise as grounds for new trial alleging that the case was tried and the arguments made excepting the argument of Atty. Gen. Sargent that the homicide was voluntary, but the attorney general departed from this and argued that the respondent was guilty of involuntary manslaughter committed by performing a lawful act in an unlawful manner.

Supreme court yesterday afternoon sustained the motion to grant the man-damus proceeding brought by H. A. Rugg and 75 others against W. J. Clapp and G. H. Dale, assistant judges for Washington county, to compel them to appoint license commissioners in Barre City, which want no license by one vote, although the "Yes" people claimed it was the other way.

There is a record in this court and there is no provision of statute for preserving the ballots in their integrity and as the judges acted according to the vote of the city as declared when taken and since the law has not made it their duty to canvass and count the votes, mandamus will not lie.

TROLLEY FREIGHT BILL

Was Killed in the State Senate Yesterday

BOSTON, May 10.—A warm contest, with the Worcester street railway situation the storm center, developed in the state senate yesterday afternoon on the bill which places the granting of franchises to street railways for the carrying of freight and express matter directly in the hands of the local authorities of each city and town. The bill also limited the franchise to 20 years. This bill had been substituted in the house for the adverse report of the committee on street railways.

Yesterday Senator Bennett of Essex, chairman of street railways, strongly opposed the bill as entirely against the public interests, claiming that it brought back a type of franchise which the state had abandoned, and left the street railways as well as the surrounding communities at the mercy of certain instances of a single local board.

After a rather heated discussion the bill was declared ordered to a third reading, 14 to 13. Senator Bennett immediately arose and said that while he would not ask for a roll-call he would offer a substitute bill striking out the limitation of franchises but leaving the control to the local boards.

Senator Hunt of Worcester, apparently fearing trouble, then doubted the vote himself although it had been declared in his favor, and called for the yeas and nays. The roll was called and the bill was rejected, 14 to 16, with four pairs. On the following division:

For the bill—Barnes, Denny, Halley, Hunt, Nelson, Nash, Nason, Quigley, Ross, Schoonmaker, Stearns, Tinkham, White—14.

Against the bill—Adams, Bennett, Blanchard, Curley, Doyle, Evans, Granger, Hubbard, Keith, Lomasney, Mulligan, Murray, Newhall, Powers, Timilty, Tolman—16.

Refrain—For the bill, Gates, Brown, Malley, Mack, against, Chace, Pearson, Greenwood, Turner.

Without division or debate the senate accepted the adverse report on the order of Senator Hunt of Middlesex for an investigation by the railroad committee relative to the amount and kinds of rolling stock installed by the Massachusetts railroads during the past ten years.

The committee on public charitable institutions, with five dissenters, reported Dr. L. Vernon Briggs' bill which prohibits the use of restraint by mitts, lock bracelets, anklets, etc., in any of the institutions of the state after July 1, 1911. The dissenters are Senator Turner and Representatives Child, Wood, Wheeler and Preece.

The ways and means committee reported against the resolve to appropriate $10,000 for dredging Charles river above Galen street in Watertown and also asked to be discharged from further consideration of the bill to authorize cities and towns to establish homesteads. This bill now goes to the committee on public health.

The senate concurred with the house in curing a slight defect in the 64-hour bill and the measure was returned to the house for enactment.

The report on the petition for a close season for deer and the bills relative to the night messenger service, the transmission of electricity, to confirm locations of electric lines, and concerning the price and quality of gas and electricity were all put over till tomorrow.

Senator Schoonmaker of Franklin-Hampshire was the only member of the senate to vote against the resolve to amend the state constitution to increase the power of the legislature to authorize the taking of land and property for highways or streets. The resolve was passed to engrossment, 30 to 1.

Senator Blanchard of Middlesex withdrew his amendment to the railroad water and draining cups bill and Senator Ross of Bristol moved the substitution of a bill which, he said, is the one reported originally from the labor and public health committees. This was put over till tomorrow.

Peaceful Persuasion Bill
On a rising vote, without debate, the senate rejected the "peaceful persuasion" bill, 13 to 13; on a roll call the bill was ordered to a third reading, 13 to 12. The roll call was:

Yes—Adams, Curley, Doyle, Granger, Halley, Hubbard, Hunt, Lomasney, Mulligan, Murray, Nason, Newhall, Powers, Quigley, Ross, Timilty, Tinkham—13.

No—Barnes, Bennett, Blanchard, Brown, Denny, Evans, Gates, Greenwood, Keith, Mulligan, Nash, Tolman—12.

Paired—In favor, Hutton, Malley; opposed, White, Schoonmaker.

On motion of Senator Malley the 12th joint rule was suspended to admit his new bill to provide that civil action may be brought to recover for "unconscious" suffering in cases of death under a separate count and money so recovered shall be turned into the assets of the executor or administrator of the deceased.

On motion of Senator Bennett of Sagus the senate reconsidered its vote of Monday passing to be engrossed the bill for a third special justice of the peace court.

All other matters were advanced. On a voice vote in which there was no advocacy heard the house rejected the so-called "bob vest" bill, which permitted the sale of calves weighing not less than 40 pounds and striking out of the present law the requirement that the calves must be at least four weeks old. This action was taken after the house had rejected an amendment offered by Representative Greenwood of Everett to adopt the national law making an age of three weeks the only requirement.

The house concurred with the senate on motion of Representative Crane of Cambridge, in an amendment providing that an appropriation of $1500 should be given the railroad commission for its investigation into the matter of equipping street railway cars with fenders and wheel guards.

Debate on Firemen's Pensions
At the afternoon session the Boston firemen's pension bill was again debated at length. Representative Montague of Boston offered four amendments, the first providing that the bill shall be permissive instead of mandatory; the second that incapacity shall be permanent to permit retirement; the third that no fireman shall be retired until he shall have reached the age of 55 years, and the fourth that any incapacity, in order to permit retirement, shall have been caused or induced in the performance of duty.

Representative Montague argued that without these amendments a member of the department could go to Maine on a vacation trip, contract typhoid fever there and, returning, make claim that he was incapacitated for duty, and under the terms of the act the city physician would be obliged to certify that he was so incapacitated and the fire commissioner would be forced to permit his retirement, although two weeks later the man might be again in first class physical condition.

Representative Lomasney of Boston offered an amendment providing that all retirements shall be subject to the approval of the mayor but he opposed all of the Montague amendments. He said Representative Montague had cited an extreme case, and insisted that the bill contains all necessary safeguards without these amendments.

Representative Sullivan of Boston also opposed the Montague amendments and favored the bill.

The house then rejected the Montague amendments, adopted the Lomasney amendment and passed the bill to be engrossed.

On the ground that the measure, if enacted, would put municipal lighting plants out of business, Representatives Emerson of Hatt and Belknap of Taunton opposed the bill that electric light companies shall charge uniform rates for all classes of service.

Representative Cogswell of Lynn, who had the bill substituted last week for an adverse report, insisted that the measure would insure a square deal for the consumer.

The bill was passed by a vote of 10 to 8. Representative Cogswell of Lynn, who had the bill substituted last week for an adverse report, insisted that the measure would insure a square deal for the consumer.

The bill making an appropriation of $100,000 to be expended on the state highways in times of industrial distress was rejected, 15 to 30.

The bill authorizing cities and towns to provide meals for school children was rejected, 44 to 28.

On a voice vote the house defeated a motion of Mr. Haines of Medford to substitute for an adverse report a bill prohibiting railroad corporations charging more than 5 cents extra on cash fares.

PLANS FILED FOR NEW STADIUM AT POLO GROUNDS

NEW YORK, May 10.—Plans were filed yesterday for the new concrete and steel stadium which will replace the stands recently destroyed by fire at the National league park, better known as the Polo grounds. The exact seating capacity is not given, but it is estimated at 50,000. The new stand will be a double deck affair, semi-circular in shape, 325 feet around the inner circle and 534 feet along the outer edge. The roof will be as asbestos and the cost is placed at $100,000. Work will begin at once.

HEAVY DAMAGE DONE TO TIMBER BY FOREST FIRES

WINNIPEG, Man., May 10.—The damage done to timber in the Dauphin Manitoba district by forest fires yesterday is unprecedented. The range country is covered by fire fully 200 miles in extent. The territory covered includes Riding, Duck and Porcupine mountains and the timber burned will total millions of feet.

Fire is in the timber reserves at all points; and, notwithstanding the fact that large gangs of men are out fighting flames, their efforts are futile in the face of heavy winds and dry goods.

"WORLD IN BOSTON"

The fifth day of the fifth month, May 5th, is a great day for boys in Japan and is called the feast of boys. Every one in Japan knows when this day arrives because above every house where boys are living will be seen the figure of a huge fish, made of brightly colored paper.

In commemoration of this day one of these large paper fishes, with some smaller ones, will be hoisted from a flag pole outside "The World in Boston." The body of the fish is hollow and when the wind blows into it, it wriggles its fins and tail just like a fish swimming strongly. The Japanese choose the carp because they say it has the power of ascending streams swiftly against the current and of leaping over waterfalls. It is thus supposed to typify the boy or young man braving the stream of life and thrusting his way through difficulties to success.

To commemorate this day some special exercises will take place in the Japanese sections of the exposition. In the Educational section in the gallery, from 2 to 6 o'clock, boys will be found occupied with characteristic games and drill. The Jiu Jitsu and Gekken will be taught by Japanese men.

CROWSON SENTENCED
SPRINGFIELD, May 10.—One year in the house of correction was the sentence given Velenus W. Crowson, former treasurer of the Westfield Savings bank in the superior court yesterday after he had pleaded guilty to five counts of making false returns to the bank commissioners.

According to the statements made by bank officials Crowson admitted taking money from the institution for the purpose of supporting his aged parents. The depositors lost nothing.

COL. HIGGINSON DEAD

Author and Historian Died of Old Age

CAMBRIDGE, May 10.—Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, historian, author, minister and soldier, one of the last of the group of famous scholars and abolitionists of half a century ago, died at his home here last night, aged 87 years.

Col. Higginson had been ill but about 10 days. A general breaking up of his health due to old age became apparent but was not considered serious until yesterday when Mr. Higginson became unconscious and no hope was held out for his recovery.

He is survived by a widow and one daughter, Mrs. J. D. Barney of Boston, who were with him at the end.

"To write good English and to have something to say," was the youthful ambition of the Cambridge man whose pen and tongue were still forever last night. Two years ago Col. Higginson said he felt that he had attained his one great ambition in life. He said he realized that it was of great importance that the literary man should have some other interest which would take him away from his studies and bring him face to face with other men; that it was desirable that he should be a reformer and have some natural gift or taste for public speaking.

"In this respect," said Col. Higginson, "my life has been a fortunate one, and has connected me closely with several important reforms, especially those relating to the emancipation and instruction of the colored race, and the education and enfranchisement of women. So far my ambition, if such it was, has been very largely gratified."

Col. Higginson was almost the last leaf on that worthy New England tree of knowledge from which had sprung such noted ones as Longfellow, Whitier, Holmes, Emerson and Lowell. There was another group, somewhat distinct, to which Higginson had also belonged and of which he, too, is almost the last to go—the anti-slavery agitators or abolitionists of the days before the war—Garrison, Wendell Phillips, Senator Hoar and, more recently deceased, Edward Everett Hale and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe.

In the death of Col. Higginson America loses one of her most eminent historians, essayists and reformers. Col. Higginson had a distinguished ancestry. His paternal grandfather was a successful shipmaster before the revolution and later a delegate to the continental congress. His mother was the daughter of Captain Thomas Storer, a British officer. Col. Higginson was born in this city in 1823. He was educated in Cambridge at the preparatory school of William Wells, where James Russell Lowell and William Storey were among his schoolmates, and at Harvard where he was graduated with honors in 1841, before the age of 18, the youngest in his class, and the second in rank. He spent two years at the Harvard divinity school, graduating in 1847, and was shortly afterward ordained as pastor of the First Religious society, Unitarian, of Newburyport. He was obliged to leave this church on account of his pronounced anti-slavery views.

He served in the Civil war as captain of the 51st Massachusetts volunteer militia and later as colonel of the First South Carolina volunteers. Union organization afterwards named the 33rd United States colored troops. He was vice president of the Liberal Congress of Religion and a member of the Academy of Arts and Sciences, Royal Society of Canada and other organizations. He held the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, conferred by Harvard and Western Reserve universities. He was the author of a history of the United States, an English history for Americans and a great variety of other publications.

FRANK GOTCH AGREES TO MEET THE "RUSSIAN LION" AGAIN

CHICAGO, May 10.—Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler, last night announced he would start training for a championship match with George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," to be decided in the Chicago American league baseball park, September 24. Gotch will receive $21,000 for his share of the purse, win or lose. Terms for the contest were agreed on last night, it is said.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should visit our Association and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without an "examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifles with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

THE FREE LIST BILL

The free list bill passed by the national house will probably be killed by the senate. We doubt whether President Taft would favor it as he stands only for the reciprocity measure which he himself has fathered. In conceding so much the standpat republicans feel that he has gone too far.

TO REDISTRIBUTE THE STATE

The present legislature will soon have to pass a measure for the redistricting of the state into sixteen congressional districts. The republicans of this state are experts at the matter of perfecting a gerrymander. They have done some elegant jobs in that line, a fact to which the residents of Lowell can bear witness. The republican method is so to distribute the democratic vote that so far as possible it shall simply constitute a number of respectable minorities and the smaller, the more respectable from the republican standpoint. In some cases of course, the redistrictors have to single out a democratic stronghold; and admit the impossibility of a gerrymander so far as that is concerned except to see that if there are any republican fringes to the district, these shall be cut off and thrown into some republican district. Sometimes they miscalculate upon future growth and a democratic minority that was expected to remain harmless has the audacity to grow into a majority. That is looked upon as a political misfortune that only a mind reader could foresee.

The democrats are now stronger in the Massachusetts legislature than at the time of the last apportionment ten years ago, and there is in office a democratic governor so that all these democratic forces combined should prevent any measure very unfair to the democrats from being enacted.

POLICE PROTECTION FOR SOUTH COMMON

If only half of what Mr. Michael Corbett has charged in his communication relative to conditions on the South common were true, there would still be good reason why the park board should look into the matter with a view to suppressing everything approaching rowdiness. It is a well known fact that juvenile ball teams resort to the South common and start bating or playing wherever they find an opening and they seem to consider that it is the duty of everybody else to get out of their way. The juveniles and their seniors should be impressed with the fact that ball playing must be confined to that portion of the common set apart for the game. Lack of proper regulation may to a great extent destroy the usefulness of the common to the general public. Care should be taken to guard against any such abuse. We are inclined to believe that there are good grounds for most of Mr. Corbett's complaints and that the lack of police protection furnishes the explanation. People who, like Mr. Corbett, reside near the common see and hear a good deal that even the park board cannot hear. The park board has not the money to pay an officer for the South common. The police department also objects on the ground of expense, so that it would seem to be up to the city council to authorize the expense of an officer to patrol this common. If an officer were assigned to the North and South commons, he could cover both acceptably by riding from one to the other on the Fletcher street car. Our commons must not be abandoned to the turbulent element while women with sick babies, people in feeble health and invalids of various kinds seek the common as the most convenient place to keep cool and to get the benefit of the fresh air. There is no use in expending money for parks, if as Mr. Corbett says, they are abandoned to ball teams and rowdies who drive off the people who most need the benefits of a public breathing place.

SHOULD THERE BE ANY FREE PUBLIC BATHS?

Should a city like Boston maintain a system of free public baths or should every bather admitted to the baths be obliged to pay a small admission fee? That is a question that is exciting much controversy in the city of Boston at the present time.

The L street free public baths in South Boston have long been a great attraction to thousands during the hot weather. There the bathers in each section, one for boys and one for men, were allowed to go into the water and lie around on the sand in the nude, but now it is proposed to change all this. The trustees of the bath house have declared in favor of an admission fee of five cents and six cents for bathing trunks, towel and soap for each person, making altogether a charge of eleven cents for a bath of unlimited time.

The Boston city council is opposed to the change, but the spirit of economy is abroad in Boston and a demand is made for a source of revenue by which the institution can be made self-supporting. It is a fact that thousands of non-residents use these baths every hot day, but there is no discrimination, no questions asked as to name, age, residence or anything else. It is not unreasonable that there should be a small charge to meet the heavy expenses of providing attendants, lockers for clothing and for keeping the buildings and beach in proper sanitary condition. Very few cities maintain free public baths, and yet the benefit of such a system to any community might far exceed the running expenses. Despite the smallness of the charge proposed for a dip at the L street baths, it would operate to keep away probably half the people who have patronized the baths in the past. It becomes, therefore, a question of public policy as to whether it would not be better in the interests of public health to have the baths free as usual so that the people who are too poor to pay any admission fee may still enjoy the luxury of a sea bath during the very hot weather. Vast amounts are paid for public sanitation, for fighting tuberculosis and the promotion of the public health and yet these outlays may not bring such substantial results as would the money expended for public baths.

SEEN AND HEARD

When it rains on washing day, the good housekeeper doesn't sit down and mourn. She finds something that needs to be done around the house.

The girl with large feet when she wears white shoes ought to wear long skirts.

The deepest of the trunk mysteries is how a woman can manage to get so much into one that the expressman has to call in the other man on the wagon to help him lift it.

If only the fool who rocks the boat were drowned, the practice ought to be discouraged.

Of course the man who runs the big steam laundry has all his own washing done by hand at home.

Everybody notices particularly to see just what tone the bride uses when she says: "I do."

Some men have such a wise look that they might have a reputation for wisdom if they only wouldn't write or talk.

If you sigh and mentally say: "Thank Heaven!" when you hear some body remark "There's no place like home!" everybody ought to be sorry for you.

As the train left a certain station the following sign was displayed in the buffet car: "No intoxicating liquors will be served while the train is passing through North Dakota."

They had been rolling through that intermediate state a long time, when the W. C. T. U. delegate from the east came into the car for her dinner. Casting her eye out of the window upon a somewhat changed landscape, she remarked to the waiter:

"Are we still in North Dakota?"

"No ma'am," answered George alertly with a hospitable grin, "what'll you drink, ma'am?"

An intense republican, Col. David P. Dyer was sent to congress during the reconstruction period, although his democratic opponent received a majority of the vote. When he was a candidate for re-election he was making a speech to an audience comprising some of his old democratic friends, and as usual he was denouncing all democrats as liars and thieves when an irreducible democratic veteran exclaimed: "Shut up! you were never elected to congress in the first place!"

Dyer looked at him and replied: "Well, my old friend, any blunder you can serve in congress who is elected, but it takes an unusually smart one to serve there who was never elected!"

NEW MEDICAL COMPOUND

A chemist who was convinced that the old method of taking internal medicines for skin troubles was wrong, discovered that an extract from a particular tree was good for the skin. This important vegetable extract, by a method of special treatment with other healing ingredients, forms the product known as Cadum. Since its introduction Cadum has cured many cases of eczema and other unsightly, irritating and distressing skin diseases after other remedies had failed. Cadum stops the terrible itching of eczema at once, and begins healing the first time it is applied. It is also good for pimples, blotches, hives, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, ringworm, rash, sores, chafings, eruptions, itching piles, scurvy, scabs, etc. Many of the results obtained by the use of Cadum may be truly called wonderful. HENRY F. CARR

Was Confirmed as Member of
the Park Commission

Four Ballots Taken for Principal
Assessor Without a Choice—
The Paving Order Calling for
$75,000 Was Referred to
Committee on Appropriations

Mayor Meehan's appointment of Henry F. Carr as a member of the park commission to succeed Col. Percy Parker was confirmed by the common council last night and Mr. Carr is now a full-fledged commissioner.

Four ballots were taken for principal assessor but there was no choice. The council did not proceed to the election of a superintendent of streets.

The joint order to borrow $75,000 for the paving of Gorham and Dutton streets, Merrimack street and Merrimack square and East Merrimack street was referred to the committee on appropriations.

The meeting was called at 8:15 o'clock. When the result of the roll call had been declared, Mr. Tracy had an explanation to make relative to the charges made at the last meeting, and which resulted in a grand jury investigation.

He said his motive was to defeat the motion to lay over elections of city officials until the last meeting of the year. He believed that in view of such high handed proceedings as were resorted to that night, he was justified in resorting to rather drastic measures. However if he had caused any member of the council to be aggrieved over what he had said, he was sorry for it.

Mr. Coughlin asked that the proposition to build a contagious hospital at the city farm be allowed to come before the city government in the form of a hearing. He said that residents in that section were strongly opposed and Mayberry one each. Still no choice.

Mr. Coughlin spoke about the condition of the South common. He said the place is a disgrace and he introduced an order providing for the erection of a gymnasium and bath house to cost $400 for the South common. He wanted a committee appointed to look into the matter. Mr. Achin asked that the same thing be done for the Little Canada playground. Inasmuch as the children in that section of the city are sorely in need of such a thing. He moved an amendment to the effect that the words "and Little Canada playground," be inserted. Mr. Brady wanted the North common added. The amendments were adopted and the amended order was then adopted. Messrs. Coughlin, Allard and Taylor were appointed members of the special committee to consider the matter.

Mr. Coughlin then spoke about the condition of the South common. He asked that the park commissioners be present at the hearing scheduled for May 23, and it was so voted.

HENRY F. CARR,
Park Commissioner.

A joint resolution to accept a sidewalk on the southerly side of South Walker street was adopted in concurrence.

A joint order to water School street from Varney street to Broadway was passed in concurrence.

A joint resolution granting permission to Frank J. Sherwood to erect a lamp-post on the easterly side of Bridge street, in front of premises No. 45, was adopted in concurrence.

The report of the committee on streets relative to the macadamizing of various streets in the city was read. It included the recommendation that Howard, the druggist, 197 Central street.

Stackpole street be macadamized. Mr. Mahoney stated that Stackpole street has not been accepted, and asked that Supt. Putnam state if it is. Mr. Putnam said that it is not.

Mr. Delaronde moved that the order for the loan of $35,000 for the macadamizing of the streets be recommitted to the street committee. Mr. Genest believed it would be wrong to hold up the matter, inasmuch as the streets need fixing up badly and street employees need the work. The action of recommending was then rescinded. Mr. Genest said he was a member of the street committee last year and remembered that Stackpole street had been accepted. Mr. Davis recalled that action, too. It was then voted to refer the matter to the committee on appropriations.

The joint order to borrow $75,000 for the paving of Gorham and Dutton streets, Merrimack street and Merrimack square and East Merrimack street was referred to the committee on appropriations in concurrence.

The joint order to borrow $8500 to repave Allen street from Hall street to the Allen street bridge came up. Mr. Achin moved immediate action on the order, inasmuch as it would pass the committee on appropriations if referred to it. It was voted to pass the order.

The joint order to expend $1000 from the general treasury fund for the observance of Labor day was passed. This calls for the expenditure of the money under the direction of the mayor and a committee of two aldermen and three councilmen.

The order for $3500 for the observance of July Fourth was adopted in concurrence. This also calls for the expenditure of the money under the direction of the mayor and a committee consisting of two aldermen and three councilmen.

The joint order appropriating $350 for the observance of Memorial day by the Grand Army of the Republic came up, and was adopted in concurrence.

The joint order to borrow $5000 for moth and beetle extermination on a six months' loan, was defeated, 14 to 13.

At this juncture Mr. Genest moved adjournment until next Tuesday night. The motion was declared defeated. Mr. Genest stated that inasmuch as the appropriations committee would take action on the street order within a few days it would be well to have it passed by both branches of the government as soon as possible.

Mr. Royal moved that a ballot be taken for the inspection of lands and buildings. Mr. Allard moved adjournment. Mr. Royal wanted to know why adjournment was desired.

Mr. Achin made a motion to adjourn. Mr. Mahoney asked Mr. Achin his reason for adjourning.

John J. Rogers said that rule 8 of the rules of the common council took care of the matter of motions for adjournment.

Mr. Royal then asked for a yeas and nays vote, but the original motion to adjourn was put and carried.

TIMOTHY F. ROHAN, Vice President.

In Observance of 10th Anniversary Last Evening

The Catholic Young Men's League of St. Patrick's parish last evening observed its 10th anniversary in its rooms in Suffolk street when a banquet was held followed by speech-making and music. Among the guests of honor were Mayor John F. Meehan, a charter member, James E. O'Donnell, John W. McEvoy, Rev. John J. McHugh, and Bro. O'Donnell, principal of St. Patrick's Boys' school. At 8 o'clock the guests sat down to an excellent menu provided by Caterer Henderson and after the good things had been disposed of Timothy Rohan, chairman of the banquet committee, stepped to the front and introduced as toastmaster President John J. McCarthy. The latter made a graceful speech of welcome and then introduced James E. O'Donnell.

Mr. O'Donnell as usual spoke most entertainingly offering his congratulations upon the achievements of the past decade and expressing the hope that the next 10 will be equally flourishing.

Songs by Andrew Smith and William B. Brady were then enjoyed after which Mayor Meehan was introduced.

Mayor Meehan's Remarks

"His Honor received a warm welcome and spoke in part as follows:

"It is an extreme pleasure for me to have an active part in this observance tonight. I have always taken a personal interest in the C. Y. M. L. from the very start. There are several reasons why I have, and first among them is the fact that I enjoyed the distinction of being the first vice president of the society. It also followed its course from time to time and I must say that it pleases me greatly to say that tonight the society is in as flourishing a condition as I have ever known it. This reflects credit on those who are in charge at the present time and on those who have recently given up the reins of control. It also reflects favorably on your spiritual director and your good pastor, who have ever taken a lively interest in you and your welfare.

"There might be many more societies of this nature here in Lowell and in the other cities of the state and country. If there were, the condition of the state and the city would be better for it. It teaches the principles which go to make up many men, good citizens, law-abiding people. Brother members, see to it that you live up to the high ideals which your organization represents, and your rewards will be satisfactory. Remember that success does not come easy. It is generally measured by the opposition it meets, so that you will find your aims, if they be high, are also hard to attain. Above all, have faith in yourselves until you have reached the goal of your ambition and you will have cause to feel proud of your attainments."

Thomas J. Fitzgerald, a former president of the C. Y. M. L. and one of its hardest workers was next introduced, and he said in part:

"Grateful I feel are we, members of the Catholic Young Men's League of St. Patrick's, to our beloved pastor, to our spiritual director and to those members whose enthusiasm and far-sightedness made it possible for us to be here tonight observing this pleasant occasion. It must be a source of extreme gratification to them to see and to know that after 10 years have elapsed we have withstood the test of stability. The founders of our society represent the flower and youth of the past and in order that we too may become worthy we must endeavor to better ourselves along the lines laid down by our teachers, first and above all by attending holy communion in a body not less than once every three months; secondly, to cultivate our minds in such a manner that we may be better able to cope with our daily labors in life and strive to give the very best that is in us so that we may be successful, not in the ordinary sense of having completed something that is worth while, but rather that we have done the very best we could.

"The league of today offers to the young man an opportunity to better himself in more ways than one. Being a church society it looks after his spiritual well-being which should be first and foremost. Then again it gives him a social side which is carefully and well looked after and it also provides a physical training.

"In conclusion let me say that it is my most earnest wish that on the next anniversary we may find the power and influence of our society fourfold and that our successors may say of our work, we have said of our predecessors. Well done, then good and faithful servants."

A letter of regret was read from

Humphrey C. Sullivan who was down on the program for a speech.

John J. Neeson gave three most acceptable solos after which Patrick Harrington sang and John W. McEvoy spoke briefly.

Brother O'Donnell was then introduced and he spoke most encouragingly on the future. He gave many word-pictures of what may come in the years before us, what it might be our chance to enjoy, what it might be our misfortune to encounter, and what it might be our good luck to secure. He laid stress on the importance of living a straightforward life and making use of the advantages which are presented to the youth on all sides. "Live up to the teachings of your church," said he in conclusion, "and you cannot help being a credit and a help to yourself and the community in which you live. Your friends will be proud of you, your city will be glad to rank you as one of its citizens, and you will have pride in yourself."

Timothy F. Rohan sang and Rev. John J. McHugh, the popular spiritual director of the society made the closing remarks.

Peter Noonan presented the society a large photograph of the present board of directors.

President McCarthy accepted the gift on behalf of the members. The accompanist of the evening was Paul Keyes.

RECIPROCITY WITH NEW FOUNDLAND

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Knox, while ready to enter into negotiations with New Foundland for a reciprocal arrangement on lines similar to the measure now pending before congress, has decided to await the action of congress on the Canadian bill before proceeding with what would be a useless task in the event that the Canadian arrangement fails.

New Foundland has little to offer as a basis for exchange besides her markets and a free fishing privilege, but it is believed that these would be sufficient providing that the New Foundlanders were willing to remove export restrictions on pulpwood and pulp, which were imposed with a view to inducing American paper makers to erect their mills in New Foundland.

ELECTION OF BISHOP

SPRINGFIELD, May 10.—The election of a successor to the late Right Rev. Dr. Alexander H. Vinton, the first bishop of the Episcopal diocese of western Massachusetts, was a weighty subject which confronted the 50 clerical and 100 lay delegates to the annual diocesan convention which was opened at Christ church in this city today.

Right Rev. Dr. Frederick Foote Johnson, bishop of South Dakota, Rev. T. F. Davies, rector of All Saints, Worcester, Rev. Dr. Thayer, master of St. Mark's school, Southboro, Rev. Lyman Powell, rector of St. John's church, Northampton, and Rev. Thomas Nickerson, rector of St. Stephen's church, Pittsfield, were the men mentioned as possibilities. Messrs. Powell and Nickerson, however, stated that they would not enter a contest for the office. It was considered possible this forenoon that should a contest extend half a dozen ballots, the choice might fall upon some one whose name has not been mentioned prominently. An election was not looked for before late in the day or possibly tomorrow.

PLEASANT AFFAIR

"Cantata of Flowers"
Was Presented

The members of the Fifth Street Baptist church and their friends enjoyed a pleasant evening last night when they gathered in the church in large numbers and listened to the "Cantata of Flowers" sung by the children's chorus of the church. The affair was given under the auspieces of the Ladies' Aid society for the benefit of the church, of which Rev. Forrester A. MacDonald is pastor. The attendance was large and very appreciative.

The children were dressed in the colors of the flowers they represented and made a pretty picture on the platform, which was beautifully decorated with pine boughs and pink flowers. The singing was under the direction of Prof. C. E. Barnes with Miss Marlon Swan at the piano.

The parts were all well rendered and that is saying a lot of the careful training the children underwent. Miss Maude Brown scored highly with her interesting readings and had to respond to several encores.

The program was as follows:

PART I

Magnolia's Song.
Lily Dyson.

Song of Joy.
Song of the Yellow Jasmine.

MARLOW & PLUNKETT,
Playing "The Deaf Student"

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A bill of merit, one that should prove more entertaining than any for months past, is this week's offering at the Merrimack Square theatre. Pierce and Roslyn, high-class singers, are the head-liners, and their act is among the very best heard on a local vaudeville stage in seasons. Both are excellent singers and have a rare opportunity to display their skill in the program which they give. On Friday night they will give an operatic recital that should appeal strongly to lovers of good music. The other numbers on the week's bill are Marlow and Plunkett, comedians, whose laughable comedy sketch "The Deaf Student" is making one of the biggest hits of the season. Wheeler and Harcourt, are two clever young women who give a comedy sketch and dance on the suffragette movement, and which is really the funniest act of its kind seen here in some time. The argument favoring woman's rights, given by one of the young women, is a real treat. Yeager and Kemp, present an acrobatic act that is clever and amusing. Sadie Graham is again heard in a new song. The motion pictures are excellent.—Adv.

one solid year. Never before has so elaborate and successful an attraction been brought here, and "Polly of the Circus" already promises to establish new records for attendance.—Adv.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Tears at parting have been in vogue and appropriate ever since the world began, and hence there are tears at the Hathaway theatre this week at the closing performance, until September, of the Donald Merk stock company.

But the tears that flow at each performance of that uproariously funny comedy, "The Bachelor's Honeymoon," haven't the slightest tinge of sadness about them, as they are born of excessive laughter, as the result of the numerous funny complications which appear during the play. Messrs. Merk and DeDeyn do the principal comedy work of the male characters, and Mr. DeDeyn as a comedian is to the manner born. Miss Lillian Nelderger, as the actress, has a part in which she displays to excellent advantage her clever dramatic ability, not to speak of her personal charm. This will be the last opportunity to see the company until next fall, as Mr. Merk goes to Boston to open with the John Craig stock company at the Castle Square theatre, while Mr. DeDeyn will open his summer stock company at Scranton, Pa. Seats for all performances of this week may be ordered in advance by telephone, 811.—Adv.

THE OPERA HOUSE

Richard (Himself) Carle, who is to be seen at the Opera House, on May 21, in his latest success, "Jupiter."

"Jupiter" is at once author, actor, composer, dancer and producer—doing all these things well. He fashioned his present play from a popular farce by Sydney Rosenfeld, rebuilding it on modern musical comedy lines, and staged the production as well. The music is by Karl Hoschna, of "Madam Butterfly" fame. "Jupiter" has just completed a brilliant run of two months at the Tremont theatre, Boston.—Adv.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

After years of effort, a success has finally been achieved in the attempt to reproduce on a stage of a theatre a three-act circus in active operation, and local theatre-goers will be treated to one of the theatrical sensations of recent years when "Polly of the Circus" comes to the Opera House, tomorrow night, where it will be presented in an identical manner that attracted enthusiastic crowds to the Liberty theatre, in New York City, for

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

A comedy bill that will please is the rule at this house for the first three days of the week. Valveno and Lammie, eccentric acrobats, deal out some funny comedy in their act. Danny Diano is a winsome singing comedienne, and Mullen, Bartlett & Co. appear in their comedy creation entitled "The Janitor." All the latest Biograph feature pictures.—Adv.

MACADAM ROAD

TO BE LAID IN DRACUT AT COST OF $1000

The preliminary work on Pleasant street, Dracut, where $1000 is to be expended in building a macadam road was started yesterday under the supervision of Road Surveyor Clarence L. Richardson.

The work will extend from Bridge street, Dracut, in a westerly direction toward the Navy Yard section. A number of men and teams are now engaged in putting on the gravel. The grade of the road will be raised throughout and thus no digging is required in the preliminary work.

The work when completed, should greatly improve the thoroughfare and its benefit will no doubt be appreciated.

SKETCHES OF HEDBERG WHO MADE A WORLD'S RECORD AT CANDLE PINS AT THE CRESCENT ALLEY'S LAST NIGHT

Carl Hedberg of Worcester Scored 167 at Candlepins

Carl Hedberg of Worcester, individual candlepin champion of 1910, was the honor man in the National duck and candlepin bowling congress at the Crescent alley yesterday. The Worcester crack, in the two-men candlepin event hit a single string of 167, which broke the world's competition string record by four pins.

The previous record of 163 was shared by Louis Bullis and Warren Brown of Boston, the latter scoring on Wednesday last. For his three strings in the event Hedberg had a total of 270, the best made by any man in the tournament. Unfortunately his partner, Butler, got a bunch of breaks and tough hits, scoring but 270. It gave the team a total of 540. Which and Hunt of Worcester also hit 540, and the two teams are tied for fourth money.

On his record single Hedberg opened by tripling strikes. He got 30 pins in the first box, 27 in the second and 13 in the third. On his fourth he got nine pins and spared for 17 on the fifth, which gave him 101 pins at the half. He annexed a 15-pin spare on his sixth and cleaned up 10 pins on his seventh. A 15-pin spare on his eighth box gave him 143 pins, and then he got his first bad break, a six box. He finished with a 19-pin strike for 167 pins, four pins better than was ever done before.

Hedberg's record deprives Warren Brown of a special cup which members of the tournament committee were going to present to him for rolling 163. Instead, it will go to Hedberg and will help to heal the wound caused by his becoming an ex-champion, as he rolled but 253 in the individual class which he won last year.

Butler's failure to hit the pins with Hedberg in the two-men class was compensated for in the three-men class at duckpins, when he contributed a single of 147 and total of 336. He rolled with Which and Hedberg and the trio lead the class with 925.

In the individual class Which hit the ducks for 327, which is fourth in the list. Derosier cracked out 339 at candles and he is in third place. Pine and Brown being tied for first with 344. Derosier and Al Lavigne are sixth in the two-men class for candles with a total of 635.

The Auditorium alleys of Malden were represented at candlepins by Hodge, Robson, Pratt, Allen and Sullivan and the men did well. Hodge, Allen and Sullivan contributed 586, which is second best in the three-men class. For an individual, Hodge split the pins for 331, and he is in fifth place. Sullivan had a good start on his individual, but fell down on the third string. In the five-men event the team had hard luck and got but 1368.

The Commonwealth duckpin team of Worcester, was forced to cancel its entry in the five-men class in order to catch the train for home. The men had an excellent start and were well over 600 on the first string.

A prominent Worcester roller was substituted by mistake and rolled in the individual class but on the arrival of the secretary of the congress his score was thrown out, owing to the fact that he was not a member of the congress. Several Worcester rollers desired to enter the events on their arrival, but owing to the fact that the entry list had closed on April 24 they were unable to do so.

The last team to roll was the Bow-way combination of Lawrence, and the youngsters hit 1448, which stands third in the list.

In the Last 40 Years Reached by B. & M. Common Stock

BOSTON, May 10.—A new low record in the last 40 years for Boston & Maine common stock was made shortly after the opening of the stock market today when the stock touched 101 as the result of the reduction of the dividend yesterday from 6 to 4 per cent. New York, New Haven & Hartford, which controls the Boston & Maine, through the Boston Holding Co., also declined 3 points to 142. Later there was a rally in Boston & Maine to 103.

At today's session of the lower branch of the legislature Representative Hayes introduced an order asking the railroad commission to investigate the reduction of the dividend. The order was laid over until tomorrow.

President Melton stated today that the reduction was based solely on the recent poor earnings of the road. The directors believe that the reduction will make easier the program of rehabilitation and that it will eventually prove a benefit to the company.

The Red Sox of Chapel Hill won from the strong Elms Saturday by a score of 12 to 7. McGlinchey pitched fine ball for the Sox. Strike Still On Trouble at Hodges Fibre Co. Not Settled

SPRINGFIELD, May 10.—There was no prospect today of the immediate settlement of the difficulty at the factory of the Hodges Fibre Co. at Indian Orchard, where 100 employees were thrown out of work yesterday as the result of a strike of 200 weavers. The strike, it is claimed by the company officials, was due to racial antagonism, the weavers, 90 per cent of whom are French Canadians, objecting to the employment of a man believed to be of the Polish race. The weavers, believing that the new man, Karl Hannuski, was not only a Pole but also the agent of a number of outside weavers, appointed a committee to wait on Supr. Stevenson and demand the man's discharge. Mr. Stevenson convinced the committee that the man was a Swede and was not an agent of others. The committee was satisfied but the weavers as a whole declared that Swedes were under their ban, as well as Greeks, Italians, Russians and Syrians, and that none of these races should be employed in the weaving department. When Mr. Stevenson learned that the weavers would not return to work he promptly closed the entire plant. The plant will not be reopened until the striking weavers come back as a body. No attempt will be made by the management to fill the places of the strikers. The men are not organized.

Lowell, Mass., May 9th, 1911. Sporting Editor Lowell Sun.

Dear Sir:

I wish to contradict a statement which was inserted in your valuable paper Monday, May 8th, which stated that the Hamilton cloth room team defeated the Appleton cloth room team.

The Appleton team defeated the Hamiltons by the score of 18 to 10.

The management of the Hamilton team ought to be ashamed to insert such an infamously lie in the columns of your paper.

I wish to say that we will play the Hamiltons for a purse, not less than $5, nor more than $25, none but employees of the Hamilton to play in the game, while the Appleton's lineup will be: Manning, C. Farrell, J. Dunlop, H. Clancy, B. Guley, ss; Walsh, 2b; Roddy, Jr.; Shields, cf; Marshall, rf; Shea, p.

Thinking you beforehand for the space this will cover I remain yours truly,

Charles H. Farrell, Capt. Appleton Baseball Team.

The Rescued would like a game with the Hamiltons, naturally meeting for a quarter ball a side. Our lineup is as follows:

Manager, W. Davey, pitcher, captain, P. Farrell, catcher, W. Qualey, 1b; T. Keefe, ss; C. Clancy, 2b; J. Dalton, 3b; W. Pouliot, cf; P. Houle, rf; W. Davey, Jr. Artie Davey is our mascot.

The Young Champions defeated the Ralph Street Stars by a score of 11 to 10. The champions had this lineup: S. Segle, cf; G. Fineberg, p; S. Taborsky, 1b; D. Douger, 2b; L. Blank, 3b; S. Silverblatt, ss; S. Greenberg, captain, R. S. Gordon, rf; S. Smith, cf. They challenge all teams in the city of 10 years. The Indians preferred. Send all challenges to Manager S. Silverblatt, 129 Grand street.

There are still vacancies in the Stony Brook league and all teams wishing to enter will notify the secretary, before Friday, May 12th. Address all applications to Secretary of Stony Brook league, care of Y. M. C. A.

Started Fire in a Building in Boston's Chinatown

He Was Badly Burned and is Not Expected to Live—He Was About to be Taken to an Insane Hospital

BOSTON, May 10.—Soo Hoo Ging started fire in a building in Chinatown today while on his way from the Danvers insane hospital to some similar Chinese institution on the banks of the Hoang Ho and is likely to leave his bones on American soil by reason of severe burns received in a fire which he is said to have set in order to end his life. The Chinaman was under guard of two attendants who took him to Chinatown to visit friends before being deposited. Soo slipped from the clutches of the attendants, dashed into a basement, barricaded the door and then set fire to the pile of furniture. When the firemen arrived Chinatown was seething with excitement and smoke was rolling out of the basement. A badly singed and burned Chinaman was hauled to the sidewalk and hustled to the police station, where it is said two attendants who took him to China-

WELL KNOWN RABBI DEAD

NEW YORK, May 10.—Jacob Weiderowitz, revered as one of the most learned rabbis in the Hebrew world, died at his home here today. Preparations are being made for a parade through the East Side streets. Rabbi Weiderowitz was born 75 years ago in Russia.

ROBERT J. THOMAS

Rev. James J. McCarthy, state chaplain, in his address to the convention, said in part: "In the comparatively short time of my tenure of office I have learned to appreciate your worth and to understand at the same time your right to be known as the truly representative Catholic organization of our day. The Knights of Columbus is an organization whose prime purpose is to develop a spirit of practical Catholicity among its members and whose pleasure is to further the interests and promote the welfare of God's kingdom upon earth at all times. How this idea is developed is evident to one who has observed or studied the workings of our order."

A resolution instructing the delegates from this state to the national convention to advocate the adoption of a level rate plan of insurance which older members might take if they desired as an alternative for the present step rate plan, was adopted.

Archbishop Makes Address. One of the most interesting features of the convention was the attendance of Archbishop William H. O'Connell at the morning session. He brought to the assembled knights words of hope, encouragement and advice, saying in part: "From the very beginning I have been a friend of this order. I have stood with you and by you. I have not to stand for what is best in this community, to amount to something. Stand with truth always and that means faith."

The archbishop then referred to the rumors that have been circulated as to the condition of his health and said that he wished it to be understood he had never enjoyed better health than at present. He stated that it is his intention shortly to go abroad, first to Belgium, to attend a meeting of bishops preparatory to the Eucharistic congress in Madrid this year.

Five Recommendations. Among the recommendations contained in the state deputy's report, all of which were adopted, were: First, that each council pledge the sum of $1 a month, payable in one annual payment, for the support of the Catholic charitable bureau; second, that a representative of the state deputy, under the direction of the state deputy, be appointed to serve in connection with the committee of priests appointed by the archbishop and known as the charitable bureau committee; third, that a committee of five be appointed by the state deputy to raise funds to endow a free room at the Carney hospital for the poor; fourth, that the state deputy be empowered to hold the annual state banquet if, in his judgment, it seems wise to do so; fifth, that the state deputy be empowered to appoint a committee for the formulating of plans for Columbus day.

Officers Are Elected. The election of officers resulted as follows: William J. O'Brien of Boston state deputy, Louis Watson of Brighton state secretary, Henry E. Hagan of Boston state treasurer, Robert J. Thomas of Lowell state auditor, James E. Dunlop of Springfield state advocate, Timothy P. Lyons of Amesbury state warder. The state chaplain is not an elective office, but is appointed by the archbishop.

James J. Donohue of Lynn, Edward Donovan of Greenfield, A. J. Doon of Natick, Edward J. O'Neill of Boston, Louis P. Plau of Roslindale, James A. Ryan of Allston, George C. Shields of Mansfield and John T. Simpson of Boston were chosen delegates to the national convention in Detroit in August.

John J. Burke of Boston, George H. Campbell of North Adams, James J. Gorman of Bridgewater, James A. Killey of Somerville, George E. Larkin of Roslindale, Philip L. McMahon of Boston, Michael A. Morrissey of Indian Orchard, Daniel E. O'Brien of Salem, Dr. Alwyn E. Hedges of Boston and Daniel J. Sullivan of Fall River were elected alternates.

The present trustees of the K. of C. free bed, Dr. Francis J. Hanley of Whitman, Daniel L. Prendergast of Boston and Thomas H. Reilly of Westboro, were re-elected.

It was decided to hold the convention next year in Boston.
